LINDY MAKES SURPRISE FLIGHT

SCANT HOPE OF FINDING LOST FRENCH FLIERS

Keep Up Search For Traces Of French Fliers

Reports Nungesser And Coli Found In Canada Are Untrue

STILL SOME HOPE FLIERS ARE ALIVE

Flares Reported Seen In Wilds Of Canada Revive Hopes Of Searchers

(International News Service)

QUEBEC, Jne 16.—Government and private search parties today are still scouring the woods of northern Quebec in search of the French flyers, Nungesser and Coli, although up to the present some of the reports indicating that the two flyers might be alive have been shown to be baseless.

Edward Blais of River Bend, who sent out messages yesterday afternoon reporting the finding of Nungesser and Coli, now reports that he learns that this report was baseless. He states that the report was brought to River Bend by a worker and was found to be unreliable.

Continue Search

Neverthless there are reports of flares being seen which are sufficiently reliable to encourage the government in proceeding with its search.

George Brousseau, who has been found to be reliable, has reported that on May 9 near the Marguerite River he heard the sound of a motor in the air and believed it was an airplane but was unable to see it on account of the fog. He states that the motor appeared to be giving trouble.

The forestry department is convinced that Brosseau's report is accurate and believes that possibly the motor may have been that of Nungesser and Coli's plane as it has been learned that no Canadian planes were in this vicinity at that time.

It is believed possible that the two French flyers lost their way over Newfoundland and followed the shores of the St. Lawrence to the St. Marguerite River, then preceding inland hoping to find a populated spot for landing.

A forest ranger employed by Price Brothers, limited, has reported that he saw flares in the uplands of St. Begin township, east of the St. Marguerite River, on Tuesday night. It was from this same vicinity that flares were reported on Sunday night.

President Coolidge Is Now Located In His Dakota Summer Home

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

STATE GAME LODGE, S. D., June 16.—Welcomed to the Black Hills by the cowboys he was told to expect, President Coolidge this morning planned to divide his first day in this rugged summer White House between contemplation of the wonderful surrounding scenery, a buffalo steak, and the lenses of a large battery of movie and still cameras.

Arising about six o'clock, the scenery came first, next came the photographers. His engagement with them was the first official appointment of the summer season. Arrival at the Game Lodge last night was so late Mr. Coolidge was forced to explain to the camera men he believed the light to be too bad for satisfactory pictures and compromised with today's set appointment.

The buffalo steak will come later—a delectable 10-pound sirloin presented to him at Pierre by Hugh Jayne, who once did likewise to Theodore Roosevelt. In addition, the Game Lodge table will be graced with seven Chinese pheasants, also Jaynes gift. Chinese pheasants are out of season, but they were destined for the President and the game warden knew about it.

During the course of the afternoon Mr. Coolidge is expected to motor the thirty-two miles to Rapid City and inspect the temporary executive offices established there in

St. Louis Makes Ready To Greet Col. Lindbergh

By JERRY QUISENBERRY.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Back to the city which gave him his plane an bade him "Godspeed," "Slim" Lindbergh will come tomorrow.

No St. Louisan ever received a welcome home such as that which awaits "Slim". No youth who had left the home town ambitious for fame and glory ever returned to find himself so idolized.

He was just "Lucky" Lindbergh, a likeable, but obscure air mail pilot, not so long ago. Tomorow when he comes home, this city will use every factory whistle, sireen and bell at its command in one great tumultuous effort to tell him he is the greatest man on earth.

The arrangements for the occasion as they stand today are the most elaborate the city has ever made for a celebration of any sort. They were started the day he landed at Lebourget and have been the most important business of the day every since.

Six public functions will constitute the city of St. Louis' welcome to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. The ceremony of the greeting him on his arrival at Lambert field here at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will be short. Mayor Victor Miller, Gov. Sam A. Baker and a few members of the reception committee will meet the "Lone Eagle" as he climbs from the cockpit of "The Spirit of St. Louis" and take him to the home of Harry H. Knight one of the principal backers. Before landing, however, Lindbergh will circle the city so that all may see his plane.

Ball Player Is Struck By Ball; Death Is Result

Charles Morrow, 22, Of Newport, Killed In Game Near Wampum Last Night

STRUCK OVER HEART BY "FOULED" BALL

Morrow Was Catcher For Newport Team; Dies In Auto On Way To Doctor

Struck over the heart by a foul tip from the bat of a Glenkirk team player, Charles H. Morrow, aged 22, of Newport, catcher for the Newport team, last night, during a game between the Glenkirk and Newport teams, remarked as he returned the ball to the pitcher, that he "got that one in the ribs", then fell over and was dead before the machine in which he was being conveyed to a physician, could reach its destination. He had been catching without a breast protector.

His body was then removed to the undertaking rooms of D. M. Marshall at Wampum, and Coroner J. P. Caldwell notified. It was found on examination that his death was due to a ruptured blood vessel at or near the heart and caused by the terrific force with which the ball struck him.

Accident About 8 O'clock

The unusual accident occured about eight o'clock last night on the Newport baseball field. Glenkirk team was at bat, Clair McKim being the particular batsman at the time. Joe Newton, twirler for the Newport team, served up a fast ball to McKim, who struck at it. The ball glanced off the bat to the rear of the batter, being a foul and striking Morrow just over the heart.

Mr. Morrow was born May 19, 1905, at Newport, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow. He was employed as an electrician at the tube plant in Ellwood City. He was a member of the Masonic lodge in Ellwood City and the New Castle Consistory. He was well and favorably known in a wide circle of friends.

He leaves his parents and one sister Gladys.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday, June 18, at 2 p. m., from his home in Newport, in charge of the Masonic lodge of Ellwood City. Rev. J. Greer Bingham of the Wampum Presbyterian church will officiate. Burial will be made in Clinton cemetery.

Bobby Jones Also Making Valiant Effort To Recoup His Losses

(International News Service)

OAKMONT COUNTRY CLUB, June 16.—Walter Hagen, hovering over and about his first real chance at a national open championship in a matter of six years, shot a 39-37-76 in the third round of the championship this morning for a 54-hole total of 226.

In so doing, he neither covered himself with glory nor his immediate opponents with confusion but still contrived to serve notice on all concerned that he will be in there at the death.

Johnston Blows Up.

One of the latter ceased to be an opponent at an early moment when Harrison Johnston, the amateur who had topped the field for two days with 147 strokes, blew like a sperm whale with an 87. However, both Harry Cooper and Gene Sarazen had a single stroke advantage on Hagen at the turn.

Meantime, Robert the redoubtable Jones, who was six strokes behind the leaders last night had started out on the great adventure with a 5-4-5 for the first three holes.

Hole Summaries:

Felix Serafin, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., disqualified.

Dressed simply, in white tulle, her chanel gown caught with Irish lace, and wearing a century-old wedding vail, Pennsylvania's first lady was to become Mrs. Brown in a combination of Presbyterian and Episcopal services, read by Rev. Dr. J. C. Pinkerton, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, Indiana, Pa. The man who administered the oath to her father at his gubernatorial inauguration.

Byrd's Plane Is Ready For Atlantic Hop

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 16.—Weather conditions and his friendship for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh are the two factors determining the hour when Commander Richard E. Byrd, famous North Pole flyer, will hop off in the Fokker monoplane, "America" for Europe.

Unfavorable weather over the trans-Atlantic flight route for the next three days is forecast by the weather bureau.

It was also regarded as unlikely that Byrd would start without having an opportunity to say good-bye to "Lindy", his friend. Byrd was expected today from Winchester, Va., where he was given an honorary degree by the Virginia military institute.

Byrd has not announced the exact itinerary of his trans-Atlantic flight. The first leg will end at Paris but it is understood that the scope of the flight will be wider than at first planned.

The plane is ready to start within an hour. All that remains to be done is filling of the fuel tanks and the placing of supplies aboard. Byrd was quoted today as saying that the next great aeronautical feat ahead is a non-stop trip around the world.

He had unexpectedly departed for Washington at 2:59 this morning (daylight time) in a fast army pursuit plane to get his own trans-Atlantic monoplane.

Lindbergh circled Mitchel field several times before he descended. As he slipped out of the cockpit he wore a broad grin and seemed to have greatly enjoyed his spectacular and unexpected flight to the capital.

He made the trip to Washington in one hour and fifty-nine minutes and came back in two hours and thirty-seven minutes, apparently having spent some time cruising about.

"Lindy" had had no sleep, but he was as fresh as a daisy when he landed.

You may have an education from a university, you may find yourself encumbered with a dignified degree, you may understand a lot of things of scientific trend, and be able to explain those things with clarity, no end, but no matter all your learning, be you pauper, prince or earl, you can never hope to understand the vagaries of a girl. with long blue and yellow streamers.

The ceremony was to be preceded by a musical program, with Ellis Clark Hamman, of Philadelphia, accompanist to the Orpheus club of which the groom is a member, playing the wedding march.

While spaces were being assigned on the capitol grounds for the automobiles of Pennsylvania's elite, who will attend the reception, police made preparations to keep the vehicular traffic of humbler citizens moving.

A cordon of officers is to be placed around the mansion, while an added force of traffic police patrol the beautiful Susquehanna River drive in front of the dignified old mansion.

Although mansion attaches could find no specific mention in the formal calendar of events prepared by official "spokesmen" of the governor, they were ready to offer wagers that little "Miss Mary," who has endeared herself in the hearts of Harrisburgers by her simple grace, would find time to appear at the mansion balcony in her bridal gown.

Mrs. Taylor was hostess at a bridal breakfast for the wedding party today, the last social event prior to the ceremonies.

The bride's brother, Robert Fisher, headed the list of ushers today, with Robert P. Brown, 11, of Moorestown, acting as best man.

Another of the many features provided by the Scottish Rite cathedral in this city, is soon to be taken advantage of for the first time—the roof garden. Announcement is made in another column today that a roof garden dance is scheduled in the near future. The roof garden is one of the notable features of the big cathedral, that will probably be most popular for social events during the hot summer months—if we have any!

Street "Stop" sign violations are occurring on the East Side. Especially at the corner of East Washington and Lutton streets do violations occur.

The route numbers on the poles of East Washington street help tourists considerably. The route number, "78," designates the Ellwood City road, while the number 33 stands for the Butler road.

Automobile tourists with maps can find their way through that part of the city with ease nowadays.

The Third U. P. church on the East Side is rapidly nearing completion. The church exterior is of red brick. Two large windows on the East Washington street side and the Adams street side will add immensely to the beauty of the church when it is finished.

It is probable that the church will be completed sometime in September.

Mayor William Dunlap today was asked if signs would be placed or warning lines painted on the road surface near street intersections traversed by Harmony route cars.

It is said that several accidents have been averted by narrow margins recently.

The cars cross streets which are heavy traffic lanes on the East Side. The mayor said he would give the matter consideration, adding: "We intend to do a lot of line painting here this summer." The mayor believes painted lines on streets are better warnings than sign posts placed along the streets.

Women are at work this afternoon at the City Rescue Mission gathering utensils for the huge Mission picnic to be held at the Park one week from today.

It takes quite a while to arrange all the cooking utensils and so the women started work gathering the things needed today.

All the food that will be devoured at this great event is not yet known, but Supt. Berquist did state that six bushels of potatoe salad would be made.

ELUDES FRIENDS AND MAKES TRIP TO WASHINGTON

the front row. He was in evening clothes.

He and a personal friend and adviser, Richard R. Blythe, slipped out a side exit and soon were speeding by automobile to the flying fields of Long Island. A telephone call to the duty officer at Mitchel field warned him "Lindy" was en route.

A swift army pursuit plane was waiting for him. Only a few reporters were at the field. "Lindy" smiled and remarked, "I almost gave you fellows the slip that time."

Hastily donning a leather jacket, he jumped into the plane.

"So long", he cried, "I'll be back by eight o'clock."

The motor whirred.

In less than a minute the famous New York-to-Paris flyer was off into the bright moonlight, picking up speed as he flew into the air. Soon only the faint drumming of the motor could be heard as "Lindy" winged his way to get the other half of "we".

On the spectacular flight to Washington Lindbergh had with him as escort Captain Sinclair Streett. "Lindy" was flying a Curtiss army pursuit ship, the one he used Monday to fly from Bolling field, Washington.

There were no lights on Lindbergh's plane as it soared into the night but Captain Streett's airship carried navigation lights so he led the way. Lindbergh was guided by the lights.

Took His Time Returning

"Lindy" took his time coming back. It had been thought at Mitchel field he might land about 7:30 or before, and when he did not arrive at that time army officials began to think he had changed his plans and had landed elsewhere.

But at 7:45 the famous "Spirit of St. Louis," was sighted swooping gracefully toward the field, with Lindbergh at the controls and followed by three other airships. "Lindy" was in the lead of the formation, followed by Captain Streett in his plane and two navy pursuit planes bring up the rear.

Before he came down, "Lindy," as if jubilant over his stunt, broke out of formation and went into a series of fancy formations. "The Spirit of St. Louis" made a pretty picture as its silver sides glinted in the bright morning sunlight. It looped and dived, sidebanked and turned over on its back with the expert fingers controlling its movements.

Aviators and mechanics on the ground applauded the buoyant spirit reflected in "Lindy's" dizzy gyrations of the ship.

And then suddenly, the famous ship dived for the landing field. Some of the observors started to run toward the plane but it suddenly zoomed up with an increased roar and sailed straight up into the sky.

"Lindy" was having a grand time. Away from the roar of the crowd he was enjoying himself.

A few minutes later he came down gracefully to a perfect landing.

But "Lindy" didn't stay down. As his plane came down lightly on its landing wheels, the motors began to roar again and up he rose, and soon he was in high altitude and into another series of ecstatic stunts. He turned over lazily as if he was enjoying the sheer luxury of the reunion with "we."

"I sure had a grand time," he exclaimed when he finally came to earth.

Plane is Locked Up.

Lindbergh was enthusiastically greeted by a number of West Point cadets, several aviators, some army officers and a few civilians who had been "in on" his secret flight.

The plane was taken to a hangar at the west end of Roosevelt field, and Lindbergh watched and supervised as it was put away. The hangar doors were locked and a heavy guard placed outside.

Lindbergh said "the Spirit of St. Louis" had functioned perfectly enroute from Washington and does not require overhauling or attention of any kind. It is ready for Lindbergh's take-off tomorrow morning for St. Louis.

The exuberant young flyer was escorted to the quarters of Col. Benjamin D. Foulois, commanding officer of Mitchell field for breakfast.

Lindbergh said he would take a short rest after breakfast before leaving for New York by automobile. He hadn't had any sleep. His friend Blythe sought to dissuade him from this and have him go to New York at once as Lindbergh is to be the guest of Brooklyn this morning but the flyer won his point.

A double guard was placed outside the quarters of Col. Foulois as Lindbergh ate breakfast. Meanwhile a battery of camera men assembled and waited for Lindbergh to reappear.

Makes Up Mind Suddenly.

Blythe said "Lindy" made up his mind suddenly to make the trip as they sat in Roxy's theatre. He had been longing for his plane.

"Say, there's a grand moon tonight," Lindy remarked. "Let's get out of here and go to the field."

None of the audience knew Lindbergh had slipped away until 3 o'clock when an explanation was made from the stage. A few hisses greeted the announcement and a round of cheering, too, from those who understood how the boy felt after having been feted to within an inch of his life.

Earlier in the night he had attended a Ziegfeld performance and also went with Mayor James J. Walker to the Polo grounds to see his friend Ace Hudkins of Lincoln Neb., lose a hard-fought battle to Sergt. Sammy Baker of Mitchell field.

The flyer's mother Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, is enroute to St. Louis by train in a private car attached to the Pennsylvania railroad's Spirit of St. Louis. "Lindy" will meet her in St. Louis following the only mode of travel which seems to satisfy him.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Racing over the eastern seaboard in a dramatic flight joining the night and the dawn, Colonel Charles Lindbergh dropped into the blinding floodlights of the naval air station at Anacostia at 3:43 o'clock this morning to re-establish the celebrated "we" partnership for the first time on American shores.

Alone in a swift army pursuit plane the sleepless eagle swooped down out of the red-tinted eastern skies one hour and fifty-nine minutes after his take-off from Mitchel Field.

Smiling and aglow with the spirit of his spectacular coup, he leaped from his plane, greeted officers of the naval flying field, quickly tuned up "The Spirit of St. Louis" and was off again for New York at 4:10 a. m.—twenty seven minutes after his arrival. The sleeping capital knew nothing of his coming or his going. Between his arrival and departure there had been hardly sufficient time to turn over, but in the dramatic interval the blackest night which precedes the dawn had been toned to a dull grey by the rising rim of red on the eastern horizon.

He arrived in a drab green army craft which was barely visible in the black skies until it swerved within one hundred feet of the glaring beacon lights of the landing field; and when he took off, the lights meanwhile having been extinguished, the glistening lines of the silvered St. Louis were as quickly lost in the dull sheen of the morning light.

the high school building. Rapid City is official headquarters, and there are quartered all of the office staff and newspaper men and photographers.

The town has outdone itself to welcome these visitors.

Last night's arrival was staged to impress the Chief Executive that he was actually in the West. Following an enthusiastic reception at Rapid City, the party motored over the hills to Hermosa and were there met by 140 cowboys, all sporting the colorful attire of the plains. A "hold-up" reminiscent of the Deadwood stage coach days — minus, however the use of gunpowder—was staged. Colonel E. W. Starling, advance Secret Service Man, had warned about the fire arms. The cow punchers gave the President the "Y-I-I-P-P-E-E," and a few hearty hurrahs, circled in on the autos and escorted them to the lodge.

DINNER STORIES
Who's Random?

'Twas a hard and bloody battle at the pistol range. At last the instructor called: "Fire at Random!"

After the carnage had ceased one freshman still stood with his pistol at "ready," a full clip in it.

"Hey, you," yelled the instructor. "Why didn't you shoot?"

"I'm waiting for Random to stick his head around the parapet."

Poor Child!

The car was crowded and the conductor was irritable.

"Where's the fare for the boy?" he snapped, as Mr. Cohen handed him one fare.

"De boy is only three years old," said Mr. Cohen, placidly.

"Three years!" sneered the conductor; "three years! Why, look at 'im. He's seven years old if he's a day."

Mr. Cohen leaned over and gazed earnestly at the boy's face. Then he turned to the conductor.

"Can I help it if he worries?" he asked.

Trinity Church Picnic Event Is Most Enjoyable

Ideal Weather Conditions Make Outing One Of Greatest Ever

Annual picnic of Trinity Episcopal Parish was held Wednesday afternoon and evening at Hill's bathing Beach on the Neshannock creek and proved one of the most successful of such events in some time.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed and there were more than two hundred and twenty-five members of the parish in attendance. The program included some form of amusement for every person attending.

During the afternoon, the boys and men engaged in baseball games while the girls enjoyed volley ball to the fullest extent. There was also a program of races, which took in the men, boys and girls.

The boys and girls were made especially happy during the afternoon and evening, with ice cream, pop, balloons and candy provided by those in charge.

When the picnic supper was enjoyed in the early evening, more than two hundred and twenty-five persons were seated about the tables.

Free transportation was provided for all, who did not have means of transportation of their own. The affair was held under the auspices of the Men's Club and the staff of the Church school.

The program of races and the winners were as follows:—Race for girls nine years or under, first, Ruth Metzler; second, Gertrude Hitchcock; race for boys nine years of age or under, first Bob Stevenson; second Donald Cole; for boys six years of age, first, Tom Blair; second, Teddy Metzler; for girls twelve years of age, first, Virginia Robinson, second Virginia Adams; boys twelve years of age and under, first George Louden, second, Ed Norris; girls sixteen years of age, first Miss Adams, second, Miss Lois Davenport; men's race, H. P. Meehan and William B. Howe, tied; boys fourteen to sixteen years, Howard Robinson, winner; boys sixteen to twenty years, first Gilbert Powell, second Robert McConahy.

The favorite old excuse about the girls "not having a thing to wear" is almost legitimate these days.

So delicate is the popcorn flavor of Heinz Rice Flakes that you can eat them every day and never tire of their taste. This delightful flavor as well as the ability of the flakes to stay crisp in milk or cream, results from the special Heinz process. This process also produces a moisture-absorbing quality which is one of Nature's best eliminative aids. That's why Heinz Rice Flakes are good for you to eat!

AUTO ACCIDENT PROBLEM

DAMAGE suits resulting from automobile accidents threaten to become, in the civil courts of the country, an even greater problem than the one prohibition and its zealous enforcement have thrust upon federal and county criminal courts.

These actions predominate in civil courts everywhere. In some states where automobile registration is largest and traffic congestion most acute 70 per cent of civil court cases grow out of automobile accidents.

The time is near at hand when courts will be unable to cope with the situation, for each year finds it increasingly burdensome. Increased labor on the part of the courts and multiplication of judges will not cure the situation. However, the doctors are at work.

One proposal, offered as a cure, is compulsory liability insurance for all automobile drivers and a commission to adjust traffic damage claims in the same way that industrial compensation claims are now handled. Proponents of the plan say it would relieve the courts, expedite settlements to the advantage of the injured and deprive lawyers of a comparatively new and fertile source of revenue.

Investigation might show that the insured driver is more careful or more reckless than the uninsured driver—a matter that has a close bearing on the question of compulsory automobile insurance—but it is evident to those in a position to know that most claims against insured drivers are settled out of court to the profit of both claimant, defendant and taxpayer.

SCOFFERS

ASSEMBLING of 7,000 Rotarians at Ostend, Belgium, no doubt gave the smart alecks a golden opportunity to rid themselves of another load of choice jeers and jibes at this service club in particular and all service clubs in general. Rotary is a favorite object of derision for the Menchens and Sinclair Lewises. For one thing, it has ideals of honesty, fairness and community service, and nothing so tickles the ribs of the cynic as the mere mention of the world ideal.

Ideals never quite square with conduct, as most people know. Service or luncheon clubs do not profess to work miracles, but the practical and fair test which every intelligent person would apply to the Rotary and like creeds is not whether it is always lived up to, but whether its influence improves human conduct.

Those who know the typical American community, not condescendingly but understandingly, have no doubt of the answer. The service clubs have helped set higher ethical standards in professional and business life, because their members are ethical and idealistic men. There is only one test which is worth putting to such a movement. Is it sincere?

The scoffers seem not to charge the service clubs with insincerity but with taking themselves too seriously. But isn't that a defect of all things American? Not even the bright young critics are guiltless of that crime.

Perhaps it is fortunate for the future of the human race that the scoffers have about as much influence upon the general course of events as they deserve.

TIME TO RE-LOG YOUR RADIO SET

THE new federal regulations which have changed the wave lengths and power status of radio broadcasters all over the United States are now effective. It is time to re-log your favorite stations. Every radio fan believes that the regulations will effect a great public service in slaying the nuisance of clashing, whinning, groaning, roaring, growling stations which ruined concerts and made radio reception a veritable torture to many points around the dial.

The fact that the new power limitations and wave lengths were assigned after very careful inquiry and the taking of testimony by the federal commissioners, and that the new licenses are of a temporary character, good for sixty days, indicates that the problem of creating order out of chaos "on the air" was undertaken with moderation and a desire to be fair to broadcasters as well as the public.

If any clash or inequities develop they can be corrected during the temporary license period; but it looks as if there will not be many complaints except those based upon selfish interest.

The radio audience with its millions of enthusiasts certainly will find its principal complaint in the fact that the federal commission did not exterminate some of the most pestilential of the air nuisances as a penalty for past misdeeds.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:32. Sun rises tomorrow 4:28.

Col. Lindbergh was afraid some of the people who were sitting on window sills in New York would fall when he passed them in the parade. He was thinking of others instead of himself as usual.

In England about eighty per cent of the people vote at elections. The minority does not elect the officials and that is probably the reason there is not much complaint from England. Every Englishman will tell you what a great country England is.

Col. Lindbergh had his mother right alongside of him most all the time while he was in Washington and New York and he stood the trying ordeal of facing the cheering mob gamely. Having mother right at one's side helps a lot.

It must require a strong sense of duty for a judge to impose sentence on his own bootlegger.

President Coolidge is setting a bad example to his fellow Americans by starting a three months vacation. Some will lose confidence in his ideas of economy.

Lindbergh at least showed the army and navy how to develop aviation. If his pace is followed we will not need fear any foreign foe in the shape of war.

In Germany the steadiness of a foot on an automobile brake decides if the owner of the foot gets an automobile driver's license. The brain don't seem to cut any figure in it.

A Pittsburgh lady celebrated her fortieth birthday in the work house where she was sentenced for killing her husband. She is probably glad she is alive. Being in the work house for murder is what we call lucky.

What a crowded old place hell would be if every New Castleite who is told by some other local citizen to "go to hell!" promptly did as directed.

Col. Lindbergh is an example of what a young man can do who does not drink, smoke, chew, cuss or stay out late at night. He will have few imitators we are quite certain. That one item, staying out late at night will not be imitated much.

Zulus in Africa buy wives on the instalment plan. The buying is carried on the "one cow down and one cow a month plan." Wonder what happen when the cows are not paid every month. No doubt they also try to get the wives for as few cows as possible.

This may not be unusual but it is in our garden. We have a green pepper on a pepper plant that is about two inches long and probably an inch thick. We think this is mighty early for a pepper grown out in the open. Others may think differently, however.

A Chicago scientist says fat is the greatest foe of man. Certainly it is not looked upon as a friendly adjunct by women. I'll say not!

Sometimes we think the reckless auto drivers ought at least show a little more consideration for the poor overworked grave diggers.

We think the government will give more attention to flying hereafter than to the army and navy. A few flying machines of the right type will cut a big figure in war, but also in making those who might want war to hesitate for a period.

President Coolidge took three dogs and a coon—we mean raccoon of course—with him on his vacation. He can have a coon hunt whenever he wans it right at home.

Col. Lindbergh had about one hundred thousand more newspaper items written about him than did the Prince of Wales or Queen Marie. Well, Lindbergh is an American.

ACHIEVEMENT

A man may be down
But he never is out
As long as he's able to fight;
It's the way he reacts
To the bumps that he gets
That adds to the strength of his might.

The chap who is reared
In a garden of ease,
With never a hardship to meet,
Is so poorly prepared
For the battle of life
He's prone to become a dead beat.

A coward can smile
When there's nothing to fear,
And things are all smooth and serene;
But the chap who can meet
Adverse fate with a grin
Is sure of the vict'ry I ween.

Through striving we gain
The full strength that we need
To face all the knocks and the strife
That will surely be ours
If we hope to achieve
Success in the battle of life.

S. S. MYERS.

Next Thursday is the day Mr. Berquist will hold his picnic at Cascade Park for the kiddies of New Castle. He still needs a lot of grub for the big day. Why wait any longer to tell him what you will do.

Sometimes we hear some chaps kicking because they are asked to pay in advance for the political matter they have in The News. There has never been a political campaign in which we have extended credit to the candidates where several did not pay any part of their debt. Most all newspapers use the cash in advance system and those who do naturally do not lose.

If the same punishment were handed out to automobile thieves that used to be given horse thieves, we have an idea that auto stealing would soon be a lost art. They used to hang horse thieves without even giving them a trial or giving them time to explain or even pray. They did get the wrong man once in a while but that made the horse thieves or those who wanted to be horse thieves even more careful.

They will tell you men are braver than women' but it's the bunk. No man likes to tip a waiter, but he will do it rather than be considered a cheap skate. A woman, to the contrary, picks up all her change, puts in into her purse, smiles sweetly at the waiter and walks out. That's the kind of courage that we men have none of.

A Kentucky man got three years for bigamy. All wrong. They should have sent him to the insane asylum.

We have it on good authority that more doctors than literary men suffer from writer's cramp these days. Why is it?

Prescriptions are more popular than books, we reckon.

Speaking of efficiency, this story ought to take the medal:

A railway director rebuked a ticket collector who allowed him to go through the gate without producing his pass.

"No matter if you do know who I am," he said in reply to the collector's excuse; "I am entitled to ride free only when I am traveling with that pass. You do not know whether I have it or not."

The collector, nettled into action, demanded to see the pass. "That's right," exclaimed the director. "Here—why—where—well I declare, I must have left it at the office."

"Then you'll have to pay your fare," responded the collector grimly.

And he did.

Coming right down to brass tacks, was there ever a time when the people thought that the rising generation had any worthwhile prospects?

America might be interested enough to guard against future Mississippi floods if the river were in Armenia or somewhere else like that.

Some people are making a plea for the restoration of the silk hat, but we're afraid it will never come to that—the roofs of the best closed cars are much too low.

The dollar bills in circulation have doubled in a few years time, but then it takes twice the number now to pay the bills.

The cure for jealousy in the winter is a fur coat, and in the summer is a sport roadster. Try it men.

The "Ask Me Another" craze is not so popular during the final examination week.

Automobiles relegated horses to the background; now the question is will airplanes and flying ships do the same thing to ocean liners?

The granting of a permit for the erection of a 110 story building in New York City may cause the man in the moon to apply for an injunction on the ground that his privacy is being disturbed.

He is no longer a kid if he can't make himself feel important by reading a newspaper while he eats.

A writer in a magazine article advises the girls not to be "afraid to go after the boys". Afraid! Why thy've got the boys on the run now.

Will some enterprising insurance company kindly get up a policy that protects a man or woman against losing their reputations. We know some people who should carry such insurance now.

June may be slow this year as the month of roses but the number of brides is just about the same. The weather may be off a little bit occasionally, but the girls and boys never fail when June comes around.

Jealousy is numbered among the incurable diseases yet up-to-date no philantropist has left a fortune to found a home for jealous men and women.

With all the jealousies, desertions, barbarous treatments, etc that figure in the divorces of the day, there is hope for those who go west to be Reno-vated.

The safest kind of speculation these days is theatre ticket speculation. Beats Wall street all to smithereens, and the best of it is that a lot of smart New Yorkers are paying the price too.

Ornithologists report that the nightingale is singing on a slightly shorter wave length this year.

Mocking Misfortune.
Around and Around.

Commander Byrd, first to fly over the north pole, plans by Friday a return trip across the Atlantic. Weather and Providence permitting, he will fly from New York to Paris, rest there a few hours, and fly back to New York.

* * *

Fortunately, while this country, officially, lags behind others, even small countries, in flying, private enterprise and courage show the world how flying should be done.

* * *

It is a pity that Commander Byrd, magnificent flyer and navigator, should risk his life. Many would urge him to remain here and work to develop the perfect fool-proof transatlantic machine. But friends of the young Virginian are not surprised at his determination to push achievement to the limit.

* * *

President Coolidge, predicting more "intensive farming," tells 200 scientists gathered in a "soil congress" that bigger crops per acre, rather than more acreage, will solve the agricultural problem.

* * *

Already the president's prediction begins to come true. Fewer stay on the farms but farms produce more. One wheat harvesting machine has reduced by 25,000 the number of extra harvest hands needed in Kansas.

* * *

Henry Ford, who proves his theory in a dozen places along the River Rouge, says improved machinery will let the farmer do his farming in eight weeks and give him a chance to rest and do other lucrative work during the forty-four remaining weeks of the year.

While Lindbergh drove past the sad and gloomy Tombs prison in New York, unhappy prisoners looking through the bars might have been inspired with a determination to do better.

But young men in the crowd outside, jeered and mocked the imprisoned men, casting the prison into an uproar of hate and resentment, frightening the neighborhood.

Those mockers were not such men as Lindbergh would care to have welcome him. Who mocks misfortune is usually a coward.

Dr. Eckener, director of Germany's Zeppelin company, says the LZ-137, now building, will cross between Germany and the United States several times, then, in 1928, go around the world.

That will begin real air travel. Those living will see gigantic airships going round and round the globe, many times, without descending, dropping passengers by small machines at London, Peking, New York, etc., as transatlantic ships used to drop passengers on tugs, off Liverpool, years ago.

Great circumnavigating vessels will fly above clouds, fog, storm, going with a gentle breeze that blows eastward forever with the earth's motion.

The New York Central, including twenty-eight companies comprising it, is valued by interstate commerce experts at $1,038,265,910.

If that valuation stands, New York Central earnings above 6 per cent on that sum must be divided with Uncle Sam.

* * *

It is impossible to establish the real value of a railroad. That value is not in rails, ties, bridges, stations or rolling stock, but in the brains of dead men that built the road, and of living men that develop it. To "value" Thomas A. Edison, for instance, you wouldn't confine your calculations to the clothes on his back. You would allow something for the contents of his head.

During the past seven days of Lindbergh excitement Alvin Kelly has sat on top of a Flagpole on the St. Francis hotel, in Newark, N. J., without sleep, taking no food but coffee. He wants to prove that people eat too much and hopes to stay up another week. Keily is a useful warning to advertisers. Don't do anything that won't be noticed. Lindbergh week was the wrong week for climbing flagpoles.

In Day's News

King Gustav V., who is in line for congratulations today on the beginning of his 70th year, has occupied the throne of Sweden for nearly two-score years and during that period he has endeared himself to the Swedish people by the intelligent and marked concern he has always manifested in all matters that pertain to their welfare. The King is directly descended from that Marshal Bernadotte who, commencing his career by carrying a musket for the great Napoleon, ended by receiving the kingdom of Dugald Dalgetty's great northern hero. Gustav is a man of energetic character and in early life had a decided predilection for militarism. At the age of 23 he was married at Karlsruhe to Princess Victoria only daughter of the Grand Duke of Baden. Their eldest son, the Crown Prince, toured America a year ago.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

DOG HEAVEN

Even those who do not acknowledge an excessive love for dogs are awake to a desire at least to have them treated kindly.

The dog has always been man's most faithful friend and any boy who has had a dog and loved him knows how one feels when he sees that dog abused.

It may be true that some dogs are dangerous and should be put out of the way, but at least it should be done humanely and painlessly. A dog has feelings, and no man can claim to be a humane person unless he is kind to animals and does not want to see them suffer.

The people at large will be interested to know what they are doing in Dayton, Ohio. Over there they have a dog pound of a new order.

It is almost entirely due to the interest of Mrs. George Shaw Green, who, during the war, was a representative of the Blue Cross, an English society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. She still loves animals and sees no reason why dogs should not be taken care of decently and with some respect to their feelings rather than being shunted into a slaughter house or a morgue.

Through her efforts Dayton has a unique animal shelter, the most scientific refuge in the country. If it modeled after a Belgian cottage. The ground about it is landscaped.

"If we were building a pound for wild animals," said Mrs. Green, "in other words a zoo, the people would put that in a park. But because the animals are dogs they are put down in the slums, and that it not reasonable."

The dogs therefore are kept in Dayton in a comfortable house. The money for their care comes from the County Humane Society and is furnished by the county, the city, dog license money, the Community Chest and so on.

The dogs are kept in Dayton three days before they are killed, if they are killed at all. It is the policy of this shelter, however, to find a home for every worthy dog received there and last year over 400 dogs were so placed.

If stray dogs therefore could read this article and if the finders of stray dogs do read it, let them know that there is one place in the United States at least where dogs are treated with some consideration.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

LITTLE MOSS—MUCH POLISH

It is said that a rolling stone gathers no moss, but acquires a lot of polish. This evidently was true with a migratory unskilled wage earner who has furnished the United States Department of Labor with the following statement of his activities, income, expenditures and travels during the year 1926. I give his report verbatim, excepting only his name:

"This is Mr. Blank, a common labor wageworker. I am sending you a belated report of my year's work for 1926.

Location January 1, 1926, Phoenix, Arizona. Had in investment January 1, 1926, $500. Cash $25. Worked during the year 180 1-2 days, 1,417 hours; average day, 10 hours 37 minutes. Earned $386, average daily wage $2.60. Expenses: Room rent and lodging, $63.56; provisions and meals, $94.72; clothing, $33.79; medicine, dental work, barbering and baths, $38.93; equipment for batching, $5.03; books, papers, stamps and stationery, $8.28; knickknacks, sports and amusements, $2.90; transportation, $68.11. Invested, $36.25. Had at the end of the year: Invested $536.25; cash, $29.

During the year I traveled 6,496 miles; Walked 994 miles, picked up rides on highways 2,195 miles; paid for rides on highways and railroads 3,307 miles; I only count as wages what was paid to me for work; most of the time I got board and room; I worked in 19 places and on 24 jobs.

At the commencement of the year I had no desire to travel at all. I would have stayed in Arizona, but work was scarce, wages, low, and conditions bad. I went to Lubbock, Texas, but found no work; went to Amarilla, Texas, got a job on a farm, was turned off on account of rain; went to Oklahoma, worked for my board; went to the strawberry picking in Arkansas and Missouri; went to the harvest in western Oklahoma; then to North Dakota; back to Texas; picked cotton; went to the pecan district, but could not buy a job; next and last, gathered corn in the famous Seagraves country of Texas. I am out of work at present and the chances are strong that I will go broke before I find employment—broke, I mean out of cash."

The reader will notice that the report is written in excellent English. Mr. Blank traveled a long way, saw many cities, worked a little, earned a little, and acquired a deuce of a polish.

Never depends upon arguments, but upon lives, for its proofs.

C. B. D. CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

MODESTY GONE TO SEED

Not long ago I noticed a picture of Dr. Chevalier Jackson, of Philadelphia, on the front pages of several newspapers. It was not, in most cases, a very good picture. The doctor was taken full length, with just a suggestion of indignation in his appearance. And he had on evening dress.

Deducting this from that, I judged that this was the best available photograph of the famous physician, and that it had got into print in spite of Dr. Jackson's most conscientious efforts. He probably was flashlighted at some banquet, along with many others, and the picture removed from the group for publication in the papers. He probably registered indignation when he found that somebody was taking his picture, even in a group.

That's just deduction, of course. I don't know Dr. Jackson at all. But I know doctors—and famous doctors— from the newspaper angle, very well.

* * *

The American Medical society is an exceedingly camera-shy organization. Not only does it impose upon its membership an unmitigated fear of publicity, in the interest of professional ethics, but it has created within the medical profession an artificial standard of modesty which I have always thought unjust to the physicians who really demonstrate outstanding ability along certain specialized lines.

This Dr. Jackson, for instance, was almost unknown outside of the medical profession until a few weeks ago, when he was given the Bok award of ten thousand dollars, for his remarkable work in extracting pins, buttons and other foreign substances from the throats and bronchial tubes of children. Dr. Jackson invented an instrument for aiding in this work, and he has saved the lives of thousands of babies who have swallowed open safety pins. He closes the pins where he finds them, and then extracts them.

There are many other doctors doing wonderful things like that. I wish that more of them might be made known to millions, and their achievements recognized, as are the achievements of great lawyers, authors and inventors. I sympathize with the medical ethics that guard against quackery. But isn't it a pity that the life-saving genius should be obliged to grow old in service before the general public is enabled to learn of his work through the fortunate chance of a Bok award?

There are multitudes of wonder-workers in the medical profession in America. How many can you name? Where one is acclaimed, thousands grow old and die without any adequate recognition.

Paglia-Zampello

Wedding of Miss Florence Elizabeth Paglia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Paglia and Clement Louis Zampello, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Zampello of Cedar street, was an event of ten o'clock this morning in St. Vitus church, with the pastor, Rev. Fr. N. DeMita celebrating the nuptial mass and performing the marriage ceremony.

Owing to the prominence of the bride and groom, the church service was attended by between four and five hundred relatives and friends. The bride was attended by Miss Christina Biondi, as maid of honor, while the bridesmaids were the Misses Elsie Wertz, Mary Marcelle, Millie Sacco, Josephine Carbone, Josephine Grille and Irene Glassie. The groom was attended by Samuel Dominick as best man, while the ushers were Mike Orlando, Lawrence Paglia, Fred Dicerbo, William Russo, Philip Perrotti and Ernest Natale. The flower girl was little Delores Biondi, while the little ring bearer was James Morelle.

The bride was very attractively gowned in white satin and wore a veil of white tulle. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, lillies of the valley and carnations. The bridesmaids were attired in taffeta silk of various colors, giving a rainbow effect in the bridal procession. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

This evening, the bride and groom will be guests of honor at a dinner and reception to be held at the Columbus hall in the Seventh ward, for which some three hundred invitations have been issued. Both Mr. and Mrs. Zampello are well known in the city, the former being connected with the dry goods business here, while Mrs. Zampello, who is a graduate of Ben Franklin Junior high school, enjoys a wide acquaintanceship throughout the city. After a wedding trip to New York city of a week or more, Mr. and Mrs. Zampello will be at home to their friends in the Seventh ward district of the city, where they will reside.

How soaking saves my clothes
—and saves me hours of work on washday

EVERY washday I used to scrub the clothes almost threadbare to get them clean. How I hated it!

Then I tried Rinso. It's wonderful in our water—makes such rich, creamy suds. I just put the clothes in these suds—and let them soak overnight.

The next morning my wash had been soaked snowy white! Even the most soiled parts became spotless with just a tiny rub or two.

No more washboards for me—no more hours of exhausting work—I always use Rinso now. And my hands are grateful, too. With Rinso they never get a bit red or washworn.

Destruction Of Brownsville Newspaper Plant Does Not Halt Edition

FIRE RAZES TWO STORY BUILDING

(International News Service)

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., June 16.—The newspaper plant of the Brownsville Publishing Co., printers of the Morning and Evening Telegraph here, was in ruins today following a fire of undetermined origin which destroyed the building late yesterday with the plant of the Hagen Ice Cream Manufacturing Co., and a two story frame garage with a loss estimated at more than $150,000.

The fire was discovered coming from a paper stock room of the Telegraph building by Harry McCamic, managing editor, as he reported for work. He immediately sounded an alarm and more than 30 men and women employes of the paper were forced to flee as the flames spread to the ice cream plant and the editorial rooms of the Telegraph building.

Three firemen, Howard Livingstown, Robert Davis and Lawrence Dawson, of the Brownsville fire department, were slightly injured when a roof timber caved in on them while attempting to save equipment in the composing room. They were given first aid and then returned to duty.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

Following its discovery, state police assigned here ran to the garage and assisted in saving trucks belonging to the newspaper.

Several horses of the state police, quartered in the garage and combination stable, were saved just as the flames leaped about them.

The publishing plant was a two story frame and brick building. The ice cream factory was a two story brick and frame structure also.

Brownsville firemen, assisted by volunteers and members of the combined editorial, press room and composing room force of the newspaper battled for several hours in an effort to subdue the flames.

McCamic said today he noted the flames coming from the rear of the building and immediately sounded an alarm. He then notified the staff of the paper. They had hardly time to flee when the fire enveloped the frame structure, burning it like dry tinder. The ice cream plant adjoining fared little better and today only a half story brick ruin stands as mute evidence as to the location of the damaged building.

McCamic immediately left for Uniontown, nearby after the fire was brought under control, and arranged with the publishers of the News Standard, a newspaper there, for the printing of the editions of the Morning Telegraph.

As a result, subscribers to the morning paper in Brownsville received their papers at their doors in time for breakfast today. The editions of the Evening Telegraph will be suspended for several days, McCamic said.

Publishers of the Telegraph today began to seek a location for a new plant and as soon as temporary quarters are found the Evening paper will be printed. The morning paper, however, will still be printed from the Uniontown plant.

Firemen and publishers of the Telegraph said today the loss was covered by insurance.

Telephone and telegraph communication was disrupted for several hours when the flames melted wires leading out of the city to Pittsburgh, Washington and Uniontown. Repair crews placed new poles and wires and had reconnected the service at last midnight.

Seventy Five In Free Swimming Class At Y.M.C.A.

Seventy-five boys are taking advantage of the free swimming lessons included in the Y. M. C. A. swimming campaign which started Monday, June 13 and will last until Wednesday June 22.

Walter Kirker physical director of the association in charge of this work stated that although only three lessons have been given the boys, some 25 are now able to swim the width of the Y pool.

He believes that there may be two or three who will not know how to swim by the time the classes are over.

The others should be out of the beginners stage at the end of the ten days.

It is not yet too late for boys to join this class but they should do so at once if they intend to benefit in any way by the instructions given by Kirker and his assistants. To join a boy should go to the association building and get in touch with Walter Kirker.

Urge Building Of North St. Bridge

Delegation Claims It Will Relieve More Traffic Than Lawrence Street

Advantages of a bridge at North street were pointed out to county commissioners by a delegation in favor of the project at a conference yesterday afternoon.

It was claimed that if a bridge were erected at this point, many residents from Plaingrove, Washington, Scott and Hickory township, would take advantage of it, to say nothing of through traffic coming over the New Castle-Slippery Rock road from more distant points.

As between the North street and the Lawrence street sites it was contended that there would be practically no country travel over a bridge at Lawrence street, as there are no outlying districts to be accommodated as in the case of the North street site.

Some of those in favor of the North street site intimated that city council, while advocating a bridge at both points, was taking a deeper interest in the Lawrence street site.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT.

Salads are good and exceedingly healthful to eat at any season of the year. They taste particularly good when the weather is warm and appetites lag. I am including two very different salad recipes in today's menu hint. The pimento rings would be pretty to serve at a luncheon where the colors would add to the decorative scheme.

Macaroni and Cheese
Buttered Green Peas.
Pimento Rings or Dandelion Salad
Strawberry Pie Coffee.

Today's Recipes.

Pimento Rings—A very delicious salad is made by steeping a few mint leaves, straining the boiling water on a package of lemon gelatin. Plain gelatin may be used. Add the juice of one lemon.

When nearly cold add a small can of pimento, cut in strips, pour in ring mold. When set, dip quickly in hot water and turn on lettuce leaves arranged on salad dish or set in individual molds and serve on lettuce. Dot with mayonnaise.

Dandelion Salad—Select tender young dandelions, wash and chop three pints and place in a mixing bowl. Add one-half cup of boiled diced potatoes and salt and pepper to taste. Brown one-half cup diced bacon in a skillet and one-half cup vinegar, one-half cup water, six tablespoons sugar and let boil up. Break in two eggs and stir with a fork until the eggs are cooked. Pour over the dandelion mixture, stir and serve hot, garnish with an egg that has been hard cooked and sliced Lettuce or endive may be served in this way.

Strawberry Pie—Wash, pick over and hull fresh strawberries, allowing about one pint for a pie. Sprinkle generously with sugar and let stand while pastry is being prepared. Make a rich flaky pastry (sufficient for two crusts) and line deep pie pan. Fill with fruit and add more sugar if necessary, dab with bits of butter and cover with upper crust. Press edges of crust well together with fork, moisten crust lightly with milk or water and bake in hot oven for first ten minutes, then reduce the heat and bake slowly until fruit is cooked. Some cooks prefer a lattice-work upper crust.

SUGGESTIONS.

A Picnic Suggestion.

Instead of taking linen or paper tablecloth for your picnic suppers, purchase two or three yards of table oilcloth and roll around a wood curtain pole or make a roll from newspaper as one cannot fold oilcloth without cracking it. This is always ready and easy to carry and requires no laundering.

Will Not Fall.

Add a pinch of cream of tartar to the eggs when they are half beaten and continue to beat until stiff. The whites will not fall, even if not used immediately.

Clean Chimneys.

Be sure that the chimneys are clean before any paperhanging is done in the fall. Or when fall comes along, and the furnace is started your new paper will have to be cleaned.

Holes in Lace.

A novel method of mending a hole in lace and one that proves very successful is to put a piece of paper under the hole and stitch on the machine until the hole is filled. Then pick out the paper. Use a very fine thread for the stitching.

Police Camp Will Be Opened July 1

Big Fish Supper Will Be The Opening Event Of The Season

Preparations for the opening of the police camp at Neshannock Falls are now under way and the place is being put into first class condition.

It will be opened formally on July 1 with a fish fry which Harper, Samuels, Fleeger and others are in charge of. It is planned that this event be one of the best feeds of the kind that the police have ever attempted.

Through the kindness of the management of the Leslie hotel the sleeping equipment of the camp is the best in its history. Beds and other sleeping equipment given by the hotel have made it possible for the camp to provide sleeping quarters for 24 persons.

The camp is being made more attractive than usual this year and one of the efforts along this line is that of Lieut. Harper and Clarence Samuels, who have cut the grass on the camp lawn and are setting up tea tables over which large umbrellas or shades will be placed for the comfort and convenience not only of the campers but also any visitors coming to the camp.

To Change Course Of Stream To Aid Bridge Construction

Contractor McIntyre of Sharon, has been granted permission to change the course of the branch of the Little Neshannock near Garner's Mill, north of New Wilmington by the Board of Fish Commissioners and the work is already under way.

The course of the stream is being straightened in order that the new and modern type of bridge to be installed at this point, may be put in position, giving a straighter and better road between New Wilmington and Mercer at that point.

Patriotic Degrees Will Be Conferred

New Castle Council, No. 180 of the Fraternal Patriotic Americans will on next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in their regular meeting place Clendening building confer the Patriotic degrees to a large class of outstanding citizens of New Castle.

The initiatory will be exemplified by the crack degree team of the local lodge. Nomination and election of officers for the ensuing term will take place. Business of importance will be considered. Plans will be made for the annual picnic to be held at Cascade park August 6.

Harvesting Wheat Crop Has Started

KANSAS CITY, June 16.—Humming binders and reapers and clattering combines are singing the songs of the harvest in the great southwest.

From the broad fields of Texas, up through Oklahoma and into the wide expanses of Kansas, the golden grain is falling. Over all the land is the stir of harvest, and in the fields an army reaps that the country's bread basket may be full.

Kansas, premier wheat state of them all, must be content with a short crop, an estimated production of little more than a hundred million bushels standing ready for the sickle. Adverse weather and pests cut the crop to the smallest since World War days.

In all of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas the yield has been estimated at about 162,000,000 bushels, but little more than Kansas fields alone yielded last year.

The way to be popular is just to make the other fellow believe he is popular with you.

Pennsylvania Night At Field Club Proves Fine Entertainment

You don't usually expect a blacksmith to know much about differential calculus, nor would you expect a butter and egg salesman to be familiar with cubistic art. By the same sign you couldn't hold it against a railroader if he didn't know much about entertaining but now and then you bump into such railroaders.

The Pennsylvania has a lot of them, and to prove it to the members of the New Castle Field Club, E. A. Fenton, Supervising Agent, presented a bouquet of his choicest entertainment blooms Wednesday evening, for the delectation of the Field Clubbers, and had they been booked as direct from the big time vaudevalle the folks couldn't have enjoyed it much more than they did.

Fenton Acts As Trainmaster

Mr. Fenton isn't a trainmaster over the P. R. R. but he acted in that capacity last night, and put his crews over the road with never an accident, save a lot of sore hands from applauding.

The first train out was the Red Arrow Quartette, composed of Ed. P. Byers, of the Johnstown Freight Station, Irvin D. Schaffer, the Singing Brakeman" of the Eastern Division, our own Richard E. Johns of the E. & A. Superintendent's office, and Capt. Samuel L. Lindsay of the Real Estate Department of the P. R. R., accompanied by Alonzo C. Bauman an inspector out of the Canton yards.

After hearing the Red Arrow Quartette there seems to be no valid excuse why they are working on a railroad, but they are, and how they can sing. The guests present would have had them singing until noon today, but even a good quartette runs out of stuff if they sing long enough.

Harry E. Yoho, a truckman on the New Castle Freight platform, got the next white block and Harry steamed out with his magician's act. He may get that way juggling packing cases, or unloading peddler cars from Buffalo but however he gets that way he's good. He grabbed things out of the air, made a deck of cards roll over and play dead and produced everything by magic except an E-2 engine.

The Irish Bard Appears

P. H. Kearns, Car Distributor De Luxe, known after working hours as the Irish Bard did a little barding and presented "The Irishman's Dream." Not for nothing did they hang that name Patrick on him and his humorous reading went over like the rest of the program.

Comes now the Sisters Foster, daughters of Conductor Edward Foster and these lissome young lassies presented some modern dancing. You know what I mean, the Charlesburg, or maybe it was the Black Bottom, or something like that. The Young ladies shift a graceful ankle, and enhanced their dancing with songs. Add to that a lot of good looks and you have this act pegged.

As a sort of charlotte russe after a heavy dinner, Noble's Pennsylvanians, which is the professional name of Master Mechanic Noble's jazz band, played for the guests to dance and everybody seemed to like the dessert.

It was Pennsylvania Railroad Night with a vengeance, and how. Any part of the show would have been an entertainment in itself, but E. A. Fenton believes in treating folks the way Nature has treated him, generously, and the result was a program that the New Castle Field Club will remember as one of the pleasantest evenings in a long long time.

The entertainment was a part of the program of Entertainment Chairman Thomas W. Dickey to provide a party of some kind each month and for the June party he appointed Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fenton and Mrs. George Dyke Blair to take charge. After the way they put it over Wednesday evening it's a good time they'll be asked to repeat some time very soon.

Annual Outing At Conneaut Lake On June 22 To Be Big Success

ACTIVITIES FOR DAY PLANNED

Wednesday, June 22, when the ex-service men of Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania gather at Conneaut Lake Park for the first annual outing of this kind, which is being sponsored this year by Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343, American Legion, there will be approximately fifteen hundred New Castle people, members of the Legion, their families and friends in attendance.

This was indicated at an enthusiastic meeting of the committees held last night at the Legion Home.

Major General Fries, who will be the speaker of the day, is one of the outstanding men of the United States Army at the present time, it was announced.

A message of congratulation has been sent to Colonel Charles S. Lindbergh and also an invitation to drop in on the boys on Wednesday, June 22 at Conneaut Lake and help make the occasion a big success.

Tenative arrangements were also announced last night for a special train and special busses to Conneaut Lake Park for the day.

There will be something doing every minute of the day for both young and old, including a program of sports and athletic events, boating, bathing, fireworks, dancing, drum and bugle corps contest, battle royal and possibly a public wedding.

It is being held on the first and longest day of the summer and weather conditions being good, there is no reason to expect other than that the picnic will be one of the outstanding events of the year at Conneaut Lake.

Two Verdicts Are Given By Juries

Carl Cumberland Guilty On Second Count Only; Mike Mattich Is Guilty

After being out all night the jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Carl Cumberland, charged with a serious offense by a young woman of Ellwood City, found a verdict of not guilty on the first count of the indictment, and guilty on the second. The jury retired at about 11 o'clock yesterday and were out until shortly after 7 o'clock, this morning. From the nature of the verdict it appears to have been a compromise.

In the case of the commonwealth against Mike Mattich, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Mattich was arrested on the Eastbrook road.

The case of the commonwealth against John Neighiu, charged with possessing liquor, is on trial before Judge Hildebrand today.

Sewer Construction Blocks Traffic On Several Streets

Probabilities are that South Mill street, between East Washington street and Croton avenue, will be closed to traffic for several weeks, as construction of a 36-inch sanitary sewer to carry off storm waters in the South Mill street district into the Neshannock river at the southerly corner of South street and Neshannock river bridge.

The mouth of the storm sewer will point down stream. The present storm sewer is said to be blocked. P.-O. street car employes are laying new rails between East Washington street and the bridge. Contractors have set the curbing as excavation has been completed.

As a result of the sewer construction not only South Mill, but Water street, leading to the bridge, has been shut off for vehicle travel.

Odd Fellows Attention—All members of Rachel Rebekah Lodge New Castle lodge No. 195 and Lawrence Encampment No. 86 are requested to meet in their hall on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock for Memorial service for departed members. Local 31.

Work On Viaduct Plans Will Now Be Started Says County Engineer

Viaduct at Wampum having been approved by the state public service commission and the cost allocated to the parties interested, plans according to the direction of the public service commission will be made by the county engineer, C. H. Milholland.

Mr. Milholland has been working at different times for several months on the preliminary plans, but will now proceed on the detail plans for the project. Since it is one of the biggest pieces of work that has been before the county for some years, it will take some time to draw up the detail plans.

The procedure after the plans are drawn, says Mr. Milholland, is to consult the parties interested to see if they approve. These parties will be, in addition to the county, the B. & O. railroad, the P. & L. E. railroad and the State Highways Department. Mr. Milholland said that it is not likely that any of the parties will appeal against the decision of the public service commission in their allotment of costs. If they did it would effect only a delay, as the courts generally uphold the commission in their decisions.

After approval of all interested parties has been secured a permit must be obtained from the Department of Forests and Water, as their permission must be obtained for the building of any bridges of a certain size over streams. Approval must also be had from the state art commission to see that the plans fill their idea of the artistic element in the construction. Finally, says Mr. Milholland, the approval of the United States War Department must be secured, as the Beaver river at this point is a navigable stream.

These approvals having all been secured, the plans and actions will be submitted to the public service commission for final approval and then it will be in order to secure a contractor for the work. It is likely that these preparatory steps will take at least two or three months before actual work can be started on the project. The order from the public service commission gave December 31, 1929, as the date for the final finishing of the work.

The old-style flivver can't be discarded entirely. There must be some cheap car for each new generation to smash up while learning.

There is just one right way to keep the skin clear and smooth

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system. This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight, I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S., which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

S.S.S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory. It is time-tried and reliable.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

O'Brien Boy Thin and Pale

In a Little Over Two Months Gained Eleven Pounds

As a body builder, an appetite creator, and to make weak, skinny boys and girls sturdy, strong and full of energy, there is nothing like Cod Liver Oil—any physician will tell you that.

But it's vile, horrible stuff to take, and is apt to upset any stomach, so now doctors are prescribing and wise parents are buying McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar-coated, and as easy to take as candy.

The son of George G. O'Brien of Mahwah, N. J., was thin and pale and did not get enough nourishment from his food. In a little over two months he gained 11 1-2 pounds and feels and looks one hundred per cent better.

Mothers, if any of your children are weak, thin or puny, give them these tablets as directed for 30 days and watch them gain flesh and health from day to day—they seldom fail—but if the unusual should happen and you are not supremely satisfied with results—your druggist is authorized to return your money.

Be sure—always—to get the original and genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets 60 cents at any druggist in America. Thousands of boxes sold daily.

Inmate Of City Home To Get Wealth At 72

Long Lost Son's War Insurance Will Go To Aged Dependent

HALLOWELL, Me., June 16.—Lizzie Rankin, 72, who more than half her lifetime has been an inmate of the Hallowell City Home, is inclined to believe that there may be such things as fairies and the like after all.

For this aged woman has been informed that a son whom she had not seen since infancy and who was a World War veteran is dead and she is entitled not only to compensation of $20 monthly, but she also may receive between $7,000 and $8,000 remaining from a $10,000 government life insurance policy which he carried.

Some little technicalities make a bit uncertain the matter of the life insurance but those who have been working on the case since the beginning of the effort to locate relatives of the young man are hopeful that everything will come out all right.

The story of the parting of the mother and her infant son, after she had been deserted by her husband; her long residence at the city home with no hope of ever leaving that institution, the death of the boy's foster parents at Parsonfield after they had received some of the payments on the insurance; the subsequent dispute over the disposition of the remainder of the money and the final investigation leading to the discovery of the mother of the veteran reads more like a piece of fiction than fact.

Dead Ostrich Yields Clock Key And Coins

LONDON, June 16.—Ida, famed ostrich at the London Zoo, is dead because she swallowed one nail too many.

A post-mortem examination disclosed that the bird was a veritable lost property depository. Among other things, her gizzard contained:

Two women's handkerchiefs, a man's handkerchief, three gloves, three feet of cord, an empty film spool, a four-inch nail, an eight-inch nail, a four-inch lead pencil, four half-pennies, two farthings and a French coin, part of a celluloid comb, part of a rolled gold necklace, a collar button, a bicycle tire valve, a brass winding key for an alarm clock, a dozen short bits of wire, metal staples, screws, small nails and copper rivets, a glove fastener and a piece of wood four inches long.

ALL THAT WASTED?

"Jack, here's the dollar I borrowed from you last week."

"Great Scott, Tom, I'd forgotten all about it!"

"Hang it! Why on earth didn't you say so?"

Kills Pesky Bed-Bugs Roaches and Ants

Doctors declare that bed-bugs, roaches and other vermin are the most to be feared means of spreading such diseases as consumption, spinal meningitis and other infectious troubles. There is no disgrace in getting bed-bugs in your home, because that can't be avoided. But it is a disgrace to permit them to remain and thrive when it is so easy to get rid of them with the new chemical compound, P.D.Q., which quickly puts an end to these pesky devils.

A Million Bed-Bugs

A 35-cent package of this golden chemical will make a quart of a mixture that is so deadly to bed-bugs that it would kill a million of them if you could get that many together. Instantly it smothers and annihilates the living creatures; coats their eggs and stops them from hatching and multiplying.

Will Not Damage Goods

P.D.Q. will not injure delicate fabrics, clothing, carpets, furniture, bedding, wall paper or woodwork. In fact, it is often used as a deodorizer and disinfectant.

Moths

Impossible for moths to exist after using P.D.Q. Easy to use. A treatment on garments will prevent moths for two years.

For Ants and Cockroaches

Ants and cockroaches stand no chance of surviving a treatment of P.D.Q. It attacks them and their eggs with such force that it kills their whole generation.

P. D. Q. In Liquid Form

RUPTURED WOMEN

Demonstrates Rice Method Free to All

Mrs. B. F. Finnegan representing William S. Rice, Adams, N. Y., inventor of the famous Rice (Non-Surgical) Method for Rupture will be at Leslie Hotel, New Castle, Pa., Friday and Saturday, June 17 and 18, to demonstrate a new special corset attachment that holds any rupture no matter how large. Even if the abdomen is very fleshy, it holds any rupture with ease, comfort and security.

Special Combined Rupture and Corset Back Support.

Every woman who has been compelled to wear an ordinary truss or abdominal support knows the gouging, cutting and chafing caused by narrow bands. The weight of the abdomen or pressure necessary in holding the rupture must be carried by the band around the back, and the pressure is sometimes very great, causing untold suffering. The special, broad supporting corset back distributes the pressure so as to do away with all cutting and chafing.

There are thousands of women who are in perfect misery because they cannot find anything that will hold their rupture and the abdomen at the same time. The appliances usually worn are hot, bulky, chafing and irritating. But this wonderful Combined Corset Back Support is light, flexible, durable and cool and fits the figure like a glove. It gives you a sense of absolute comfort and protection while at the same time greatly improving abdominal outlines.

Trusses in common use are not adapted to women and often do great harm. Women therefore, suffer more and are in greater danger from rupture than men, and all women, who have ruptures or who wear an abdominal support of any kind should not fail to call and see this wonderful Combined Corset Back Support. No description or illustration can fully convey the remarkable utility of this splendid Support. It must be seen; it must be put on to convince any woman that it was designed for her.

Mrs. Finnegan takes a large woman just as she is, all out of shape and unsightly and by this remarkable Corset Support gives her a natural, neat, trim figure.

She will also give full instructions on how to handle and care for any rupture, large or small. She will show how to hold any kind of rupture from the simple groin and femoral to the large and difficult Navel and after Operation Ruptures, without chafing or squeezing, also how to wear the corset correctly.

Don't let this great opportunity get away from you. Don't continue to suffer the burden of rupture and truss wearing when it is so entirely unnecessary. Your call on this Lady Expert is sure to prove one of the best things you ever did. She will be there only two days, then your opportunity will be gone. The fitting and demonstration are free. It don't cost you a penny to learn all about the Rice Method and the wonderful opportunity for help it offers in your case. After demonstration you can purchase the Outfit required if you wish.

Call any time from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., or 7 to 9 evenings. Just ask at the hotel desk for the Rice Representative and she will do the rest.

Music Claimed Handel When He Was A Child

Composer Produced Operas Before He Reached The Age Of Twenty-One

George Frederick Handel, the German composer, was a fine looking man, tall and strong, with pleasant, well modeled features. When he became an English subject and was given a pension of $3,000 by the Crown, he was courted by people of taste and distinction.

Of course, so popular a man had enemies, and some of them said he lacked tact. It was reported that he once held a temperamental prima donna in a precarious position out an open window, threatening to let her drop unless she consented to sing a song she had declared she would not sing.

Handel showed a genius for music when he was a child. His father had planned that he should become a lawyer and took severe measures to prevent the boy from studying music. However, the boy's godmother smuggled a tiny clavichord into the attic and there he taught himself to play.

When he was seven years old he went with his father to visit a relative in the service of a Duke. While there he was permitted to play on an organ and the nobleman, listening, expressed interest in the talented child. Through his influence the father gave grudging consent to a musical education. At seventeen Handel was appointed organist of a Cathedral at a salary of $50 a year. He had written and produced operas by the time he was twenty-one.

Would Divorce Wife Because She's Fat

GENEVA Switzerland June 16—The canton tribunal of St. Gall tried a queer case when a Swiss tradesman sought a divorce from his wife because of her "abnormal obesity."

The petitioner declared that his wife ate as much as four ordinary adults, and his savings had been squandered in buying food for her. She had taken a dozen different medicines in attempts to reduce her weight but all had failed. The jury dismissed the case.

Girl's Brittle Bones Baffle Physicians

BURTON-ON-TRENT, England, June 16.—An 11-year-old girl, the daughter of a miner, is attracting wide attention in medical circles by her unfortunate ability to break her bones. They are so brittle that she has fractured her legs on five occasions and her collar bones twice. After two years in a local infirmary she was recently discharged as cured, only to stumble a fortnight later and break her leg again.

OUR JUNIOR CITIZENS

EXHIBITION OF MODERN ART.

In a recent article in this column by Miss Gailey of the senior high school faculty, the object of the art study in the public schools was clearly stated—being found in the development of an appreciation of beauty and the application of the principles of art to the every day life.

In addition to this teaching, the most of our schools have on the walls of the class rooms a few copies of the world's best pictures regarding which instruction is given. The children thus acquire a foundation of interest in really good pictures. But they find little opportunity of becoming acquainted with modern development in this line.

To help meet this need the Art club is giving its co-operation to the work of the schools by bringing to our city a small but choice exhibition of water colors by William B. Hazelton of Boston, Mass.

Miss Franz of "The Green Shelves"" of North Mill street, is kindly furnishing the space for the exhibit.

The short review of the pictures which follows is given by Miss Caroline Haney a member of the Art club.

Mr. Hazelton spends his summers in searching out interesting corners of quaint old towns as the subjects for his pictures. The scenes in this collection are from Douarnenez, Gloucester, Flanders, Brussels, Oxford, Chartres and Paris.

Mr. Hazelton's style is delightfully modern. The colors are used pure and yet put on with an assurance that needs no correction or retouches.

"La Fete du filet bleu" embodies the spirit of the carnival. It is gay with bright colored balloons and swirling figures. La Fete du filet bleu forms a striking contrast to "Douarnenez Street" with its brilliant sunshine and the peasants loitering lazily in its warmth

"Washing Day in Chartres" is a favorite. The rhythm of its composition makes it seem that one can hear the sound of the women's brushes and the clatter of their tongues.

"The Garden of Versailles" and "Notre Dame" are stately, having the fresh clear atmosphere of spring.

"The Fishermen" is a composition in four-four time. The difficult problem of using many vertical lines is well handled. There is life and action without stiffness which so often results in this style of composition. All of Mr. Hazelton's pictures show a fine feeling for harmony of color.

There are a few block prints, which although of French and English scenes are very Japanese in their execution They are few in number but cover a wide range of style. From the very simple Quimper, Brittany to the almost florid style of the Golden Cross Inn. "The Swan Boat" seems as if it were floating down a lily covered stream in old Japan.

The Green Shelves has just been decorated and the delicate creamy walls form a pleasing background. Mr. Hazelton's pictures are small but have a remarkable carrying quality.

The public is most cordially invited to come in and brouse around.

Sciatic-Neuritis

The sciatic nerve, situated at the back of the hip joint is frequently the subject of Neuritis, giving rise to the painful disease Sciatica. The symptoms are intense pains which shoot down the thigh to the foot, often aggravated by walking, and with painful points along the course of the nerve, very tender to the touch.

The trouble is a very obstinate one and does not readily respond to ordinary treatment. It takes more than the usual pain sedative even to alleviate the pain. The best way to get relief from the persistent nerve racking pains of Neuritis is to get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2, which comes in capsule form. Take them as directed and in about 24 hours you should be able to notice that they have considerably reduced, if not almost banished, all pain and soreness. Continue faithfully and in a reasonable time you should be able to work and rest in comfort once again. McKee's Kut Rate Store; Ellwood City Agent, F. L. Schweitzer keeps Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2 in stock all the time and sells lots of it.

Lutheran Church Delegates Prepare For Heresy Trial

Evidence Of Gravest Nature Expected As Rev. Smith Goes On Trial

OFFICERS NAMED AT WEDNESDAY SESSION

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, Pa., June 16. — Assembled delegates to the annual convention of the Pittsburgh Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church here today prepared to hear evidence of the gravest nature in connection with the heresy trial of Dr. Frank Edwin Smith, of Pittsburgh, charged with heresy.

The convention, which opened yesterday in Grace Lutheran church, considers the heresy trial of Dr. Smith a "matter of the gravest importance, affecting the good bearing of the whole church and religion in its greatest sphere," according to a statement made by Rev. D. Ellis B. Burgess, who delivered the opening address of the conclave.

Further evidence of the concern with which ministers and the heresy trial board are viewing Dr. Smith's denunciation of doctrines of the church, and, perhaps, others whose liberal views are threatening to disrupt Lutheran congregations, seemed obvious today from certain recommendations Dr. Burgess made in his annual report.

Dr. Smith was placed on the liberal list when he is alleged to have made certain utterances from the pulpit in his Pittsburgh church, denying the Virgin Birth and other teachings which Lutherans uphold. Since his indictment he has aligned with another denomination.

The following officers were elected: Rev. P. H. R. Mullen, Swissvale, recording secretary; Rev. George H. Schnur, Erie, secretary of statistics.

Ballots on other officers will be announced at the end of today's meeting. At that time the place of the 1928 meeting will also be made public.

Plan Reception For Mr. And Mrs. Gray At First Christian

On Friday night at eight, in the parlors of the First Christian church a joint reception will be held for A. W. Gray, the new educational director, and all new members who have recently come into the church.

This will be a formal reception, to which all members of the church are invited, both old and new. Musical numbers have been arranged by R. E. Johns and the social committee, under the leadership of Joseph Lindsay, has arranged for appropriate ceremonies. All new members will be given tags upon which their names shall be written for means of identification. At the reception all who have recently been baptized will receive baptismal certificates. There have been added 135 new members since the first of January. The pastor, C. H. Holcomb, will give a short address of welcome. Refreshments will be served and a good fellowship time in general will be enjoyed.

Plumbing Violation Charge Is Made

W. J. Carlin has been charged at the police court by Plumbing Inspector E. S. Stevenson with violation of the plumbing code in running the water from rain spouting of the home of Hugh Graham into the sanitary sewer. He has posted a forfeit of $50 for his appearance at a hearing to be held later. Mr. Graham has also been notified to report on a similar charge, the police say, and is expected to appear and put up a forfeit in a short time.

Grading Roadway Into Berger Woods

Employes of J. C. Gilfillan are grading a road into Berger woods, Highland avenue, North Hill.

The plot is to be sold for residential purposes.

Gilfillan acquired ownership of the woods, a natural beauty spot, several months ago.

Picnic For Pomona At Butler, June 24

Picnic Committee Of Pomona Grange Set Date In Unison With Booster Meeting

Members of the Lawrence County Pomona Grange picnic committee have made arrangements for the annual grange picnic to be held in connection with the booster meeting at the Butler Fair Grounds on Tuesday, June 24. It will be in the form of a basket picnic and gives promise for a good time to all those who attend.

This booster meeting at Butler is one of a series of twelve meetings being held in the state of Pennsylvania. This will be the nearest that any of these will come to New Castle.

Draft Horses Continue To Decrease In Number

Work horses and mules have declined in number by 24% in the State of Pennsylvania since 1920 according to the United States Department of Agriculture. The decrease in the United States has been 17% and it is feared that unless breeding is resumed on a larger scale that the next five years will find a reduction of the present numbers by 30 to 40 percent.

Efforts are being made all over the country to encourage the preservation of the work stock of the farms and drays. In some sections of the country horses are reported to be coming back into use both on the farm and on drays. Weather conditions have made tractors impracticable in certain parts of the state.

Yet prices of draft animals do not seem to increase but have remained about the same for the last three years. Yet, the present low prices may not be expected to continue indefinitely. In fact, there is a definite market demand for high-class draft geldings and saddle horses of merit at good prices. Inferior horses of all types will undoubtedly continue a drug on the market.

Plans Completed For Pooling County Wool

W. B. Connell, Specialist From State College, Will Judge Wool; Pool Dates

Lawrence County's Cooperative Wool Growers will pool their wool June 20, 21, 22 this year, according to a report given today from the Wool Growers office in the Dean block, South Croton avenue.

Following is the schedule for the bringing in of the wool.

Monday, June 20—North Beaver township and Butler county.

Tuesday, June 21—Plainsgrove, Slippery Rock, Wilmington, Wayne, Perry, Shenango, Hickory, Washington and Scott townships.

Wednesday, June 22.—Union, Little Beaver, Mahoning, Big Beaver townships and Beaver county. Also any other sections not included in the schedule.

Many of the farmers have never pooled wool. It is requested by the heads of the growers that those who live near a farmer who has never done this get in touch with him and explain the working of the pool, also if possible, persuade him to bring his wool in and pool it with the other growers.

Two wool shows are being planned by the association for the coming year. Any grower who has some nice fleeces of wool, should carefully wrap them in paper and deliver them with their wool to the warehouse when it is pooled. All bringing in wool will be paid for it when the pool is sold, whether before or after the show, and will receive one-half of the premium money won by the wool. The association will show this wool at Harrisburgh and Wheeling, W. Va.,

All farmers should also look over their wool and select fleeces for the show to be held at the annual meeting of the association. This will also be wrapped carefully, but the farmer should keep it at home until the time of the annual meeting. There are money prizes and two silver cups to be competed for at this show.

W. B. Connell, sheep and wool specialist from Pennsylvania State college, will do the grading at the old warehouse on Moravia street where it will be pooled.

The reason some people rent houses is because it's dangerous to sleep in garages.

Sheer Frocks and Women's Hygiene

New way safer—discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

THAT filmy gowns and women's oldest hygienic problem now go safely together is a fact millions of women are learning.

Old-time sanitary "pads" with their worries and dangers are giving way to the utter protection of a new way called Kotex.

✓ Kotex discards as easily as tissue. Thus no laundry, no embarrassment of disposal.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton "pads," one may now dance, motor, go about for hours with never a doubt. Also deodorizes; thus ending all fear of offense.

Obtain at any store without embarrassment simply by saying "Kotex." Box contains 12. Be sure you get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

Rotary Census Finds 57 Crippled Children In Mercer County

MERCER, Pa., June 16. — The number of crippled children in Mercer County reported here through the efforts of the combined Rotary Clubs of Mercer County to secure a complete list total 57 it is announced.

A total of 696 letters were written and sent out to addresses where there were crippled children in the family.

The number indicated above totals the crippled children learned of although children to the number of 23 with other defects were reported and 138 letters were received stating there were no crippled children. The number is surprising for a county with over 100,000 of a population and is somewhat of a disappointment to the officers of the combined Rotary Clubs of the county who are behind this drive to secure a census with the purpose of holding a clinic and operating on those who can be helped. The clubs of Mercer, Sharon, Grove City, Greenville, and New Wilmington were interested with R. E. English of the Grove City club at the head of the organization. In the Mercer community were found 15 cripples; Grove City 18; Sharon 13; Greenville 8; Wilmington 3.

Members of the clubs will be sent out with questionnaires to the homes of the children to secure all the data on their condition.

Following the securing of these a county wide clinic will be held in some one county-town when all of these children will be examined.

Celebrating Her 88th Birthday

Mrs. Eliza Gibson of the Almira Home is receiving showers of congratulations today. Mrs. Gibson is 88 years of age today, but in spite of her advanced years reads the paper easily and turns out wonderful fancy work. At the last New Castle fair she was a prize winner taking down the prize in three classes of such work.

Friends are dropping in to see her today to wish her well and to hope that she lives to see many more such days.

FRECKLES
Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckleface, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes your freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any drug or department store and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles.

Just Folks
By EDGAR A. GUEST

The Ballad of the Grumbler.

Life's all wrong with its fitful rains,
I hear them grumble from day to day
The human body is filled with pains,
The blackest of hair must turn to gray.
There's nothing but trouble along the way
And many a ship and a train lies wrecked,
Man must work when he'd rather play.
What in the world do these folks expect?

Too steep the mountains; too flat the plains,
Even the rich must face dismay.
One finds care in the gold he gains.
The poor man wails that he cannot pay.
Comes December, he longs for May.
Life's bill of fare is torn and specked;
Why forever gloom display?
What in the world do these folks expect?

It's an irksome life if you heed the strains
Of the doleful song which the grumblers bray.
Joy may come, but the fact remains
There isn't a chance for it long to stay.
Yet where is there one of us here can say
That only life's pleasures he should collect,
That never his planning should go stray?
What in the world do these folks expect?

L'Envoi.

Lord, was it said we should all be gay
And romp through life with our whims unchecked?
Why so fretful at care are they.
What in the world do these folks expect?

Mayor Undecided About Mounted Cop

Mayor William H. Dunlap today stated that he has not yet decided whether a horse will be asked to aid in the alleviation of traffic conditions here. Were a horse loaned to the city or purchased by council a policeman would be mounted on the horse to help traffic in East Washington street.

The city's chief executive said he has not yet given the suggestion of Patrolman Tom Jones much thought, but believes it contains merit. He said he would have to investigate and determine if a horse could be used in Washington street without proving a detriment on account of the number of cars as it would have to keep out of the auto path.

High School Reunion At Cascade, Friday

Twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Alumni of the New Castle high school will be held Friday at Cascade Park. Present indications are that several hundred people, many more than usual, will participate in the picnic supper, which will be held in class groups, in the picnic grove. This is designed as the big feature of the reunion, enabling the former students, their wives, husbands and families to become acquainted or renew old friendships.

The supper will be followed by the annual business meeting and election of officers at the grove, after which the annual dance at the dancing pavilion will be held. An even larger number of people is expected at this event.

The class chairman are requested to report to Mrs. Earl Sowers, 109 Garfield avenue, not later than Friday at noon, as to the number who will participate in the picnic supper, so that the table room may be arranged properly. Her telephone number is 245-R.

HOLDING NEW YORK'S VAST CROWDS IN CHECK

This snapshot shows the kind of work New York police have had to perform to prevent jostling crowds from overwhelming Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh. This photo was made an hour before he was due at this spot.

If You Haven't Been Reading Foreign News Here's Summary

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Now that Col. Lindbergh's moved on, with his mammoth attraction, let's take a hasty glance around at some of the little matters which have been awaiting attention in Washington until the government had time to give them the once over.

Up to date they've scarcely been mentioned.

The reports and dispatches and correspondence concerning them have simply been dumped on departmental desks and stayed there, mostly unopened, while officialdom was greeting Lindy.

Except as to Lindy, the capital honestly hasn't the slightest idea what's been going on of late.

It will be interesting to see what can happen, and nobody know it.

* * *

To begin with, Russia's in a terrible ferment, due to the cold-blooded assassination of one of its emissaries in Warsaw, right on top of a police raid on its diplomatic headquarters in London, following the local authorities' flagrant violation of the sanctity of its embassy in Peking, plus a healthy suspicion in Moscow that all the rest of the world's out to "get" the Soviet government.

England and Russia, in fact have severed relations.

Dispatches (hitherto unread) say a conflict's threatened that may involve the whole of northern Europe.

* * *

Italy and Jugoslavia are on the ragged edge of war over Albania.

It may sound like a small affair, but it's one of those Balkan difficulties which, when started, spread like smallpox. The World War illustrated how they do it.

Dispatches (hitherto unread say it threatens a conflict which may involve the whole of southern Europe.

* * *

Chang Tso-Lin's forces, bunched in and around Peking, with the rebels closing in on 'em, appear to be on the verge of a fight that will make the rookus a few weeks ago, at Shanghai and up the Yangtse, look like small potatoes.

Some folks predict it will be as bad for foreigners as the Boxer uprising.

Every effort's being made to drag the United State into it with the other "powers"—a mere matter of ten or a dozen years' fighting and police work, a million or so of troops and a few billions' expenditure.

* * *

Premier Poincare has come out flat-footed with the announcement that France can't stand for the last American war debt settlement, but will have to have a good deal better terms before beginning to pay anything.

* * *

President Coolidge, has put Senator Smoot on his Ananias list.

To be sure, he did it tactfully.

Smoot said the president had told him he's going to call an extra session of congress, between Oct. 1 and 15. The president says he told no such thing—he hasn't made up his mind yet.

He softened this blow by adding that he didn't mean to contradict the senator. However—see if you can make anything else out of it.

* * *

Otherwise—except that the Mississippi and the Missouri have overflowed in some new places and that the United States has managed to get into a mean little immigration disput with Canada, which doesn't exactly strain relations, but certainly doesn't make 'em any pleasanter—nothing much has happened under cover of the Lindy excitement.

WALTER HAGEN IS UP WITH LEADERS IN GOLF TOURNEY

His putt for a four just missed and he had a sure five.

At the short 13th Hagen missed a 15-foot putt for a two and got his par three. He also had a par four at the next with two good shots to the green and two putts.

Misfortune overtook the "king" at the difficult 15th. Here he hit a long ball off the tee and then played what appeared to be a great iron, and it really was, but the ball barely trickled over the edge of the green and into a bad spot in a deep trap. He exploded over the green and took a six to get down.

Then followed a good three at the 16th. At the 17th Hagen tried for a short cut and the longest carry over the traps on the left side. He just failed to make it. The ball hit into the side of the trap. His out left him short of the green and his chip was five feet away. He missed this putt and took a five. At the home hole Hagen's second, a long iron, was only 12 feet away and he had a sure four.

Sarazen, out in 40, continued to shoot indifferently through the early holes of the incoming nine, being a stroke over par for the first three of these. However, Harry Hampton declared himself back in the chase again with a 38 to the turn, being even with Hagen at that point.

M. J. Shortley of Pittsburgh district manager of the Veterans' Bureau is in New Castle today and tomorrow in the interest of War Risk Insurance Adjusted Compensations and other subjects related to the Veterans' Bureau.

Mr. Shortley will be at the Legion Home this evening and will be glad to see any of the ex-service men concerning reinstatement into their war risk insurance and the conversion to policies of the old line type, He will be glad to advise or give information upon any topic connected with the Veterans Bureau.

July 2 is the last possible date in which the conversion of policies or reinstatement may be obtained.

Mr. Shortley says that the Pittsburgh office is handling over $500,000 of insurance every day and at the rate of increase they will be reinstating policies to the amount of $1,000,000 every day before the closing date of July 2. Yet even at a million dollars worth a day he says it is only a drop in the bucket compared with the $35,000,000 of insurance that was allowed to lapse.

Mr. Shortley says that the Veterans Bureau is most glad to give any assistance or information it can in aiding ex-service men to secure this insurance that is 20 per cent cheaper than that of ordinary insurance companies. Paul Welsh of the Temple is the local representative.

Fish Warden Koonse Has Unusual Experience

Fish Warden C. E. Koonse, who has been patrolling Mercer county on the lookout for violations of the fish laws of the state, had an unusual and interesting experience within the past few days, which resulted in the punishment of two violators.

Warden Koonse was enroute home last Friday after a day spent in patrolling part of his district, when at the Garner Mill site, just beyond New Wilmington and just over the line in Mercer county, he noticed a middle aged man fishing.

The warden asked to see his license, also asking him his age. The man in spite of his looks to the contrary said that he was twenty-one years of age and on being informed that he looked more like fifty, he said that he had sent another fellow to Mercer to get the license and that for that reason there might be some discrepancies in the license, which had on it the name of Charles Bronson, which was the name given by the fisherman, and also the age twenty-one years.

Having secured the number of the license, Warden Koonse decided that he would investigate further and informed the fisherman to that effect.

About six o'clock Monday morning of this week, Mr. Koonse was surprised by the appearance at his place of residence of the fisherman. He said he wanted to tell the truth, stating that his name was Lewis Holzapbel and that the license he had been using was that of his nephew, Charles Bronson, from whom he had borrowed it.

Warden Koonse took Holzapbel, also his nephew before Justice of the Peace H. E. Phipps of Sharon, Pa., where each paid fines of $25 and costs amounting to $2, the former for fishing without a license and the latter on a charge of allowing the improper use of his fishing license. The latter's license has also been confiscated.

Big Still Seized Near West Middlesex

WEST MIDDLESEX Pa., June 16 A 75-gallon still, other modern distilling equipment and 29 barrels of mash were seized by County Detective Samuel Leyshock and his aides on the old Foreman farm, four miles south of here.

More Than 50,000 Suggestions For Elephant's Name

McManus Hopes To Make Selection Prior To First Of July

More than 50,000 letters and postcards were received by George McManus, creator of "Bringing Up Father", in the national contest to pick a name for the elephant which is appearing in the famous "Jiggs" and "Maggie" strip published daily in this newspaper. The contest closed at midnight, Thursday, June 9.

From the colossal mass of mail that actually clogs his office and practically fills two big stock rooms, Mr. McManus and his associates will try to pick a winner before July 1. The person that sent in the name which the cartoonist likes best will receive $50. Mr. McManus will name the winner, as soon as possible after the final selection, in a special announcement that will be published in these columns.

Mr. McManus has already gone through thousand of letters in quest of the one most appealing name for his comic elephant. The early suggestions include about every name applied to an elephant in all literature in a variety of spellings that would do credit to a congress of cartoonists.

The man who draws "Bringing Up Father" wants to thank everyone who has tried to help him select a name for that elephant. He and his assistants are actually working overtime on their vast mail. Watch for the special McManus announcement—naming the winner—in The News on or before July 1.

There's a hanging judge in Chicago, but he's a straphanger.

MANY CLASSES FOR ROSE SHOW

Flower Growers Have Many Opportunities In Coming Local Exhibition

For the Fourth Annual Rose Show which takes place Wednesday and Thursday, June 22 and 23 in the Carnegie Auditorium, there are many classes for the flower grower. So many that nearly every one who has flowers of any kind on his yard, can find a class in which to compete.

Peonies, roses, delphinium, iris, poppies and lilies, with every one having several classes. The amateur grower, the private grower and the commercial grower can all compete with never one interfering with the other. Luncheon table sets will be featured this year, and dinner sets also.

The Garden Club posters which the students of the Senior High school completed some weeks ago are being put out over the city as an advertisement for the Rose Show and are attracting attention.

The judges will be selected within a day or two and the announcement of their names made. In the meantime, exhibitors are asked to get their entry blanks in to Mrs. S. D. Pearson, Moody Avenue.

Important Event In Scout Work Wednesday

Old Country Club Troop Invested With Scouting At Ceremonies At Shelby Hall

Registration Cards And Charters Given Ewing Park And Kiwanis Troops

ELLWOOD CITY, June 16. — One of the most important events in the history of the local Boy Scouts, struggling to get ahead in scoutdom, were the ceremonies last night in the Shelby auditorium when over three hundred people witnessed the investing of the Old Country Club troop with beautiful and impressive ceremonies.

At this ceremony the troop in a body, all clad in spotless khaki uniforms, accepted the scout oath, laws and principles. This is the first ceremony of this nature ever conducted in Ellwood City, and was well worth witnessing for its beauty and solomn impressiveness.

This new troop has been very active, and is headed by Scoutmaster N. Dudash and Rev. Babimski, chairman of the troop committee, has shown a keen interest in its progress.

Another feature of last night's program was the presentation of charters and registration cards to the scouts of the Ewing Park and Kiwanis troops. The Kiwanis troop is the newer troop, having been organized but recently through the efforts of the Kiwanis Club. Ralph Main is scoutmaster of this troop, which meets weekly in the Hartman school building.

There's a wrong way to be thrifty. If you had buried a thousand dollars twenty years ago, you'd be worth only $237.60.

Yet some people love the underdog merely because he affords the contrast to make them feel important.

Quakers at a recent convention, decided to "pep" up their meetings. It does seem as if they have been rather quiet of late.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

SAUCY LITTLE HOP-O'-MY-THUMB.

"Ha! Ha! You can't catch me!" squeaked a shrill voice, and out from a crack in the side of the tunnel popped a small, dark form. "Tag!" cried the tiny creature and tapped Mole upon his long nose with—and Peter could hardly believe his own eyes—a wing, and somehow with his hind leg he managed to give the Boy a sharp kick on the shins at the same time.

"Ouch!" cried Peter and jumped to one side. Mole gave a squeal of rage and with his great paw struck out at the stranger, but missed.

"Mean little insect!" stormed he. "You copy the Moles in everything else, why don't you learn some of their good manners? Jumping out at folks scaring them like that! Just you watch out, Hopper! My time is coming and one of these fine days I am going to gobble you up so fast that you will not know what happened."

"Pooh! Then I shall not care!
"Mole is mad
And I am glad
And I know what will tease him,
Tickle his nose
And step on his toes
And then run off and leave him.'"

The saucy fellow hopped up and down in front of Matty, keeping himself well out of the way of the Mole, who could not see him very well anyhow, and instead of hitting him only made silly dabs at the air every time he tried it. Then, with a final skip and jump, down the road in front of them sped the fellow. The Boy stared after him, puzzled.

"Who is that Hop-o'-my'thumb?" asked he.

Mole chuckled. "Hop-o'-my-thumb! What a queer thing to call him," said he. "But I do believe it suits him better than his own name—Mole-Cricket. Although, after all, I don't know! He has paws and burrows in the ground as we do, and yet when he goes to the surface he can run and hop just like a cricket; and he has wings, so Mole-Cricket suits him all right, too. He really isn't such a bad insect, as insects go, but I don't like him—he can run too fast—gets away from me every time. And what is any insect good for if he can't be caught. Nothing at all—just a nuisance in Mole-land. Can't drive him out though--he insists upon being a miner and says he has just as much right underground as we Moles—shows his paws to prove it. Little pest! But there, let's not talk about him. There are lots of things more interesting.

"Do you see that magnificent mound right ahead of you? Well, that is the fortress of Great-Great-Grandfather, the oldest Mole in all the town. There he is now, standing in the doorway. Isn't he a handsome old gentleman? Keeps his paw on everything that is going on. Not one of us would think of building a home without asking his advice about it, and as a miner—I just wish you could see some of the tunnels and shafts that he has dug. There, his nose has told him we are coming. He is bidding us good-afternoon."

Next "In Grandfather's Fortress."

Newlywed—You surely don't expect a brass band everywhere we go on our honeymoon, do you?

His Bride—Oh, no! I have that on my finger!

OPEN GOLF TOURNEY AT OAKMONT NEAR CLOSE

New Champion Likely Result

Bobby Jones, Present Title-holder, Must Play Fine Game To Retain Honors

HAGEN-JOHNSTON SHOW GREAT FORM

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor Internat'al News Service

OAKMONT, Pa., June 16. — For the first time since he relinquished the title in 1920 to Ted Ray never to regain it in the intervening years, Walter Hagen today was ready to go into the final rounds of the National Open Championship with the fighting chance that only a fighting golfer needs. Three strokes back of the lead and occupying a spot from which a rush from the rear may well be started, the "King" was poised today for the effort of a lifetime, and, at least ten other men felt exactly the same way about it.

One of them was Robert, the Emperor Jones, himself, and in person, playing through the tournament as a champion who seemed about to be unfrocked. The gent was six strokes back of the leader, Harrison Johnston, the amateur gentleman of gentleman amateur as the case may be. Johnston started the last two rounds with a total score of 147, Hagen with 150 and Jones with 153.

It seemed as though the champion of champions was due to call it a tournament.

Jones Off Stride

For, at intervening spaces were placed the illustrious names of Gene Sarazen, at 148, Tom Armour at 149, Harry Cooper at 150, and while it may be that Jones will go very well today it doesn't stand to reason that one and all of these parties will go very bad. It will need a combination of both to return Jones to the throne he ascended at Scioto so regally last year.

Jones, of course, is the Harry Houdini of competitive golf, the man who can pluck a rabbit out of the hat and make it look the part of a lion. He was six strokes back when they started the last eighteen at Scioto. And what happened? Everybody blew with the single, outstanding and notable exception of Robert the Jones. He was four strokes off the lead starting the last night and yet won.

History may repeat, in spite of the prophets, but Bobby Jones isn't likely to win unless he starts playing miracle golf, pronto and without loss of future time.

As a matter of fundamental fact, he has too much to beat. In the 1926 championship, he had men in front of him who weren't due to win anyhow. Today, he must outlast such as Sarazen, Hagen, Armour, Cooper, Mehlhorn, Diegel, Jim Barnes and Archie Compston, not to consider Johnny Farrell and Bobby Cruikshank who might come up from the surreptitious rear to take the play away from everyone.

Those mentioned are the only ones who have better than a mathematical chance at the title but, at that, they are too numerous if you wish to figure them against any one man. The impending champion may be neither Hagen nor Sarazen. It may not be Cooper or Armour. It may be even that Johnston will fold up in the last two rounds.

But you can't figure all of them missing at one and the same time and that is the main reason that the boys behind the third tier of lockers in the Oakmont club house are betting today that a new champion will be installed ere the shadow of late afternoon purple into that bank of hills beyond the nether bank of the Allegheny.

Unusual Classic

But whoever the winner may be, the 1927 tournament must go down in the books as the most unusual of all the classics. No one, with the possible exception of Armour's 71, Fred Baroni's 72 and Farrell's 73 of yesterday, has been able to score in the manner to which they have become accustomed.

The British nominated a nine-man team and yet with the showdown rounds approaching, only one of them, Archie Compston has the chance of a white man on a fair day. The "hot" choices of the American contingent were supposed to be Farrell, Cruikshank and John Golden, among others, and yet the first two are barely within hail and the latter is out of sight and virtually mind altogether.

The positions of Jock Hutchison and Willie MacFarlane, ex-champions, both may hardly be regarded as encouraging while Joe Turnesa, who chased Jones into the last title, remains with the situation today almost as a matter of courtesy.

It has been a tournament of form-backflops and perhaps we haven't seen anything yet. The third and fourth rounds always produce the inevitable blowup that comes to every man who essays to play 72 holes of golf and they will be played today. Anything can happen; many things will, it only remains to determine what, how, when and by what authority.

Rumor Hornsby To Manage Giants When John McGraw Quits

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 16.—The story that Rogers Hornsby had been selected to manage the New York Giants in 1928, is unfounded, according to John J. McGraw, who is here with the team.

McGraw said:

"I didn't announce Hornsby would manage the Giants in 1928. What I did say was that I hoped Hornsby would be the man to succeed myself as manager of the Giants. However, I did not say in 1928, for my present contract does not expire until the close of the next season."

Pirates Win From Braves

Hill Records His Eighth Straight Victory For Pirates

JOE HARRIS STARS WITH THREE HITS

PITTSBURGH, June 16.—Carmen Hill won his eighth straight game for the Pirates yesterday when Pittsburgh defeated the Boston Braves, seven to four, at Forbes field. Aside from the ninth, when he appeared a bit wild, Hill proved a puzzle to the Braves. Joe Harris got three hits.

Pittsburgh was the first team to score, the tally coming in the fifth when Harris singled, went to second when the ball bounced off Welsh's leg, took third after Welsh took Hill's fly, and scored on L. Waner's single to center.

Wright singled in the sixth, went to second on Grantham's fly out and scored on Barnhart's double. Boston scored their first run in the seventh and the Pirates hit Edwards, who had relieved Robertson, and had a circus, making four runs in the last part of the seventh.

Boston scared the Pirates in the ninth when Burrus batted for Goldsmith and singled and Moore singled to left, Burrus taking third. Moore went down to second and Richbourg's hit went for a triple scoring Burrus and Moore, and Welsh's single scored Richbourg.

Bessemer-Energy Deadlock 7 To 7

Darkness Halts Fine Game At Energy Field On Wednesday Night

Darkness put a stop to a fine game at the Energy Field on Wednesday night, the score was deadlocked at 7-7 between Bessemer and Energy when the game was called.

Five pitchers found their way into the game. Energy used Van Eman and Houk, while Bessemer used Kirker, Hoover and Miller.

Bessemer tallied three runs in the first of the seventh inning to take the lead at 7 to 6, but the Energy boys batted in another run in their half of the seventh that deadlocked the game at 7-7. It was too dark to play the eighth inning.

Pirates-St. Louis Cling To Lead

Chicago Cubs Go On Rampage Against Eastern Teams, But Leaders Keep Pace

JOE HARRIS IS LEADING SLUGGER

BY LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 16. — Although the Chicago Cubs, with eleven straight victories, are burning up the Eastern teams they are unable to draw clear of the Pirates and Cardinals, who have caught the idea and started winning spurts of their own. The Giants, held to two hits by Jess Haines, dropped to the .500 mark and apparently are out of the race.

Three leading pitchers improved their records. Ted Lyons of the White Sox won his ninth game in a row and his twelfth of the season; Carmen Hill of the Pirates chalked up his eighth consecutive victory; and Charley Root of the Cubs won his eleventh game of the season.

Grimm and Hartnett each got four hits as the Cubs massacred the Phillies 12 to 5.

After being tagged for a homer by Simmons with the bases choked in the first, Lyons settled down and did not allow a hit after the third inning. He won his own game with a triple in the eighth. Score 6 to 4.

Joe Harris, whose hobby this year is collecting base hits, got three of them as the Pirates subdued the Braves, 7 to 4. Pittsburgh handed an unconditional release to Joe Bush, veteran pitcher, and bought Joe Dawson from Louisville to replace him.

The Giants merely went through the motions against Haines, losing 5 to 0.

Eppa Rixey of the Reds held the Brooklyn Robins to four hits but Dazzy Vance won the decision 2 to 1.

The other teams did not play.

By a score of 52 to 2 a team of blind athletes of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind near Philadelphia were victors in a dual track meet with a team from the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind.

The Moiroe club of the Cotton States league has a star pitcher in Syd Hensiek who recently pitched 37 scoreless innings before his run was broken.

New Castle Drops Close Game To Grays At Centennial Field

SMITH FEATURES WITH HOME RUN

The Homestead Grays defeated New Castle's O. & P. league team here last night, by a score of 8 to 6. It was the second victory of the year for the Grays over the locals.

The visitors started to score in the first inning and kept it up. New Castle found the pitching of Britt and Joe Williams hard to solve.

Smith the Gray's third-baseman featured the game with a home run drive over the left field wall. Graham, V. Harris and Britt led the Grays at bat with two hits apiece. Brehanney, McCullough, Steen and General had two hits apiece for the locals.

Byak excitrified the fans by a one-handed running catch of a hard hit ball into right-field, that would have gone for a triple or a home run had the local guardian of the pasture allowed it to get away from him.

Jamieson and Meis divided pitching duty for the locals. Jamieson started and lasted until the eighth inning, when he was derricked in favor of the local manager.

Church League Calls Meeting Of Managers

Important Meeting Held In Y. M. C. A. At 8:30; To Discuss Business

A very important meeting of all Church League managers will be held this evening at 8:30 in the Y. M. C. A. It is very urgent that all be present as important matters will be discussed. Problems that have come before the league directors, following the games of the first part of the schedule, will be brought up for discussion. The following managers are urged to make themselves known at the association building this evening: Patton, Carson, Reed, Nicholson, Hanna, Johns, Oaks and Hulbert.

Few remember the record-breakers of yesterday—but they still can enjoy the popularity they won, if they had sense enough to cash it.

SORDS POINTS

The Kellys Have The Last Laugh In This Case

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Bill Kelley, first baseman of the Minneapolis Millers in the American Association, is hitting home runs once more with his usual abandon.

Which may not cause the leading industrial concerns and Kiwanis clubs to declare half holidays.

But the fact is of considerable interest to Bill Kelley—and his boss, Mike, also a Kelly.

And here's the tale, as Mike, manager of the Minneapolis club, tells it.

Manager Kelley needed a home run hitter for his team—a man who could be counted on to break up ball games frequently with one placed adroitly in somebody's back yard.

The Buffalo club of the International League was having some discussion with Bill Kelley, slugging first sacker, regarding salary. Manager Mike knew Bill's penchant for hitting home runs (he having socked 44 in 1926) and sought Bill's services. The deal went through.

However, Kelley, the first baseman had not been working out while the discussion went on and reported to the Millers with little or no practice.

His batting average the first few weeks was not what it should have been. What few flies he hit could not be called home runs by any stretch of the imagination for the reason that somebody always caught 'em.

The deal began to look decidedly bad for Mike. In fact some of his critics were quite plain in suggesting that he had been "stung."

Slugger Bill read some caustic remarks about himself, too.

Then, in the closing days of May Slugger Bill found his batting eye.

The team was playing in Milwaukee. Bill suddenly cracked out two home runs in one game and added another the next day.

Returning to Minneapolis for a series with the St. Paul club Billy gave the home-town crowd a thrill by slamming out a double that won the game for the Millers. The next day was Memorial Day. He socked one for a homer in the morning game and pickled two in the afternoon game.

The next day he added another.

The wind has changed. Bill is once more rated a great ball player. And Mike a shrewd manager. Such is fickle baseball.

Croton Drops To Independents 10-7

Independents Hit Ball Timely To Snatch Lawrence County League Victory

The Independents defeated Croton last night in a Lawrence County League game at the Croton field by a score of 10 to 7. The game was featured by heavy hitting on the part of both teams.

The Indies scored four runs in the first inning to take the lead, and again in the fifth inning the Indies shoved over four runs. Croton found the pitching of Pannella hard to solve, especially with men on the bases.

Mash featured the game with a home run drive.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

The recent clash of George Moriarty, Tiger manager, and Marty McManus, star infielder, would seem to bear out the prophecy I made last spring that McManus would be of value to the Detroit team, provided only that he was contented and could work in harmony with the pilot.

It was with some hesitancy that I stated frankly the reputation McManus had earned at St. Louis. I had heard of the conditions, however, from an indisputable source. The fining of McManus by Moriarty following a heated discussion over the methods used in handling the club, would indicate that McManus has reached the same barrier at Detroit.

It is extremely unfortunate, especially for the Detroit club, that the dissension cropped out.

I have been travelling through the west recently and am interested in the general sentiment expressed, regarding the various big league clubs.

Joe McCarthy, by his own personality and the fight he has injected into the Cub team, is restoring that club to its former estate. The Cubs have the tradition—always have had it—but during the in-and-out days, preceding McCarthy's arrival, that tradition had become a bit dust-covered.

It is fortunate for the White Sox owners that the renaissance of that club comes at the same time. Thanks to Ray Schalk's endeavors and the help his players are giving him, the American League entry is holding its own in popularity. A so-so season for Comiskey's team would have found the Sox park deserted entirely.

The debate anent the chances of the Pittsburgh Pirates upsetting the National League predictions, runs much more torrid than that over the possible chances of someone overhauling the Yankees in the younger circuit.

There are two reasons for this. The first one is that the spurt of the Pirates has been much more sensational. Donie Bush was conceded to be an astute baseball leader, but he was given but an even chance to turn the demoralized Pirate team into a harmonious and winning outfit. He not only eliminated the discord over night, but carried the reversal of form onto the playing field, almost before the season opened. But for a series of mishaps to some of his players the Pirates might have taken a bigger lead in the National League by this time.

While the majority of critics selected the Philadelphia club to win in the American League, the surprise accompanying the spurt of the Yankees was of momentary duration.

"The Yankees are off again," said the fans, and let it go at that.

The question most generally asked is—

"What is wrong with the Athletic pitchers."

Twin Brothers Dual Captains

Donald and Douglas Hyde, Appleton, Wis., twins, are both track stars so they've been elected joint captains of the team at Lawrence College for 1928. They participate in the same events and finish closely together, making it hard for the judges.

Walloping Wally — By Feg Murray

Another ex-Yankee comes to town to battle his former teammates. Last week it was Aaron Ward, of the White Sox, and this week it is Wally Schang, of the St. Louis Browns. Schang belongs to that select catcher's society known as "The Six S. Backstops." The other members are "Oil" Smith of the Pirates; Ray Schalk, of the White Sox; Hank Severoid, now gone from the majors; Luke Sewell, of the Indians; and Frank Snyder, of the Cardinals. At this writing, Wally is batting way above the rest of "S" catchers; in fact, way above the rest of the American League, with the exception of his teammate, "Bing" Miller.

Just what suddenly inspired Wally Schang to wallop the old appple at a .400 clip is hard to understand. He hit above .300 in only five out of the fourteen years since he came up to the majors, and the highest mark he ever had for one season was .330 made last year. Maybe the climate of St. Louis, or Dan Howley's influence, or the late spring, has pepped up this 37-year-old man to new deeds of strength with the willow.

A tabliod biography of Walter H. Schang shows that he was born in Wales, N. Y., and his friends will all tell you that he is a Prince of a good fellow. Joining the Philadelphia Athletics in 1913, he jumped right into a world series with the Giants, and he and a fellow rookie named Joe Bush completely wrecked Mr. McGraw's team in one of the games of that October classic. To celebrate, they decided on a double wedding, and so they were married on October 14th.

Ten years later, as the star battery for the Yankees, they celebrated their wedding anniversary by beating the Giants again, this time at the Polo Grounds. In the meantime Wally had played in four other world series, one more with Philadelphia, one with Boston, and two with New York. Schang did bat .44 in the 1918 series, and it must be said that the husky catcher thinks he is replaying those championship games of nine years ago—hence the singles, double, and triples that are bouncing off his bat of late.

Feg Murray Says—

When interviewed the other day, Coach Dollar Bill, of the Long Green "Iron Men," said that he was on the cent of a lad named Nichol, who, in due dime, should become the best runner on the team in the quarter and half.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

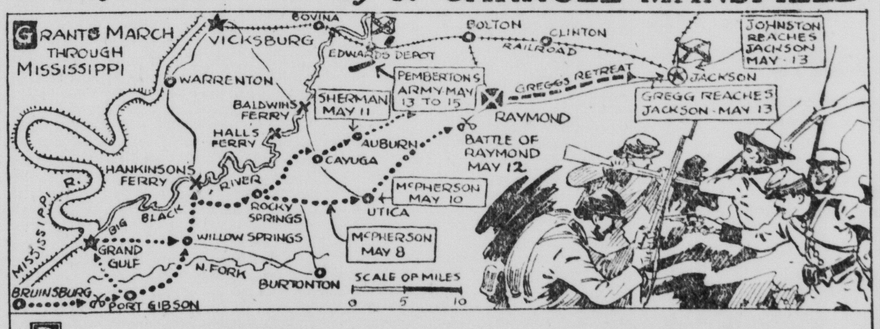
Registered U. S. Patent Office.

The Battle of Raymond.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ON MAY 6, 1863, GRANT SET OUT ON A LONG MARCH FROM GRAND GULF, MISS., TO REACH THE REAR OF VICKSBURG. HIS SUPPLY TRAIN WAS STILL ON THE WEST BANK OF THE MISSISSIPPI, AND TO TRANSPORT AMMUNITION FOR THE ARMY HE HAD GATHERED WAGONS, CARTS AND CARRIAGES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION FROM THE PLANTATIONS AROUND BRUINSBURG.

BEFORE THEIR DEPARTURE, THE SOLDIERS WERE ISSUED TWO DAYS' RATIONS TO BE CARRIED IN THEIR HAVERSACKS, AND THE NECESSARY BALANCE WAS TO BE PICKED UP BY FORAGING FOR POULTRY, BEEVES AND CORN AMONG THE PLANTATIONS THAT LAY IN THE PATH OF THE UNION ADVANCE.



REACHING ROCKY SPRINGS, GRANT SENT HIS COLUMNS MARCHING EASTWARD OVER PARALLEL ROADS THAT FINALLY CONVERGED AT THE TOWN OF RAYMOND. ON MAY 12, McPHERSON'S CORPS ATTACKED RAYMOND. IN THE TOWN WAS THE CONFEDERATE GEN. GREGG WHO, WITH HIS BRIGADE HAD RECENTLY BEEN ORDERED FROM PORT HUDSON TO REINFORCE JOHNSTON'S ARMY AT JACKSON. LOGAN'S UNION DIVISION CHARGED VIGOROUSLY AND GREGG, OUTNUMBERED, WITHDREW FROM THE FIELD AND HASTENED TOWARD THE STATE CAPITAL. WHEN GRANT HEARD OF McPHERSON'S SUCCESS AT RAYMOND HE RESOLVED TO SEND HIS ENTIRE FORCE TO CAPTURE JACKSON.

TOMORROW—THE CAPTURE OF JACKSON.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 16—Active stocks in all departments of the market advanced in good form at the beginning of trading today as the result of the influx of a good volume of buying orders from important speculative centers The advance was halted in the second hour, however, when profit taking forced heavy selling in the principal industrial and railroad shares.

The influence of actual and prospective higher dividends for the important railroad companies was plainly seen in the larger demand for the investment rails. Rock Island's advance to above 114 was based on the expectation of an increase in the annual dividend rate to 7 per cent before the end of the year.

General Motors Corporation reported its retail sales for May at 171,364 units, a 21 per cent increase over the same month last year Reports from two other automobile manufacturers also showed a gain in production and sales as compared with last year. The money market was unchanged.

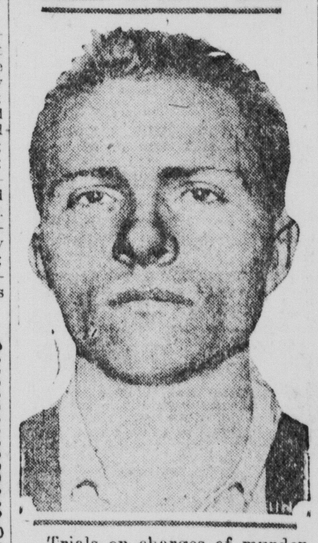
"HONOR MAN" AT WEST POINT

West Point has chosen its "Honor Man" for the class of 1927. He is Cadet Lieutenant Hans W Holmer, 26, of Medford, Mass., who was appointed to the United States' Military Academy from the regular army. Holmer is seen in the inset in the picture above, which shows the historic academy from a height of 2,000 feet.

Caught!



Trials on charges of murder and robbing the mails await Roy (at top) and Ray D'Autremont in Oregon after four years of hidden freedom. The brothers were caught in Ohio as a third brother, Hugh, was facing a jury on the same charges. The search for them covered the world.

The world in chorus (for once in its life): "Stop it, Lindbergh, before you get killed."

Maybe Nature sends a cyclone now and then in an effort to clean up the places where picnics have been.

When you read that nations are "in agreement," that means they have decided how to cut the pie.

SOMETHING TO STOP CRIME

A Kansas City, Mo., detective has invented a reloading apparatus that can fill cartridges into a revolving pistol chamber in from two to three seconds. The reloader, carried in a leather socket attached to a belt near the revolver holster, now being used by the Kansas City police department, is said to eliminate considerable fretting and swearing since it beats the old system of reloading by nearly 30 seconds. Photos are of E. L. Nelson, (1); the process of reloading with the device, (2); the reloader, which is a cylinder containing six cartridges, each held in a spring, (3); by pressing upon the plunger at the end the cartridges may be pushed into the revolver barrel. The leather case in which the device is carried on the belt, (4).

COVETED MEDAL FOR "LINDY"

The coveted Hubbard gold medal of the National Geographic Society, awarded to Colonel Charles Lindbergh in Washington, is pictured above. Lindbergh is the eighth man to receive it in the 39 years' of the Society's existence. Two other recipients were Admiral Peary, below, left, for discovering the North Pole, and Commander Richard E. Byrd, lower right, for being the first to fly over the Pole.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder have been very busy the last few weeks as their presence was requested in so many different homes. They had to cancel a previous arranged dinner engagement in order to be free to attend the reception held in their honor.

They left Wednesday for their new home at Waynesburg, O.

The pageant, "The King's Highway," was presented to a large and appreciative audience Sunday evening. Much credit is given for all those who had any part. The offering taken amounted to almost $40, which will be used for Home Missions.

The annual Young People's Conference will be held here Tuesday June 21, in the afternoon and evening. An interesting program of addresses, readings, music, etc., is being arranged. RUPTURE SHIELD EXPERT HERE

E. J. Meinhardi, of Chicago, the well-known expert will personally be at the Leslie Hotel, New Castle, Pa., on Sunday, June 19th, from 11:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M. and on Monday, June 20th, from 9:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. He will also be at the Ohio Hotel, Youngstown Ohio, on Tuesday, June 21st, from 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. and from 6:00 P. M. to 8:00 P. M. and on Wednesday, June 22nd, from 9:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. Mr. Meinhardi says:

"The Vacuum Shield" will not only retain the Rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case—usually giving instantaneous relief withstanding all strain regardless of the size or location of the Rupture.

CAUTION—Do not expose yourself to the danger of wearing old-style trusses with understraps. These trusses usually place the pad on the lump and not on the rupture opening. This often causes strangulation which usually necessitates an immediate surgical operation or results in sudden death.

"The Vacuum Shield" has no understraps. It is also perfectly sanitary and practically indestructible and should be worn while bathing.

Only gentlemen are invited to call at this time as special arrangements will be announced later for women and children.

NOTICE: It is impossible to explain, demonstrate or fit this appliance by mail, therefore, I visit this section every year—giving demonstration without charge, or will be pleased to fit you if desired. Every gentleman interested should try to be present at the most important demonstration, which will be given promptly at ten o'clock in the morning, however you are invited to call and investigate this method any time during the above stated office hours. All cases that I have fitted here during the past five years will please call for inspection.—E. J. MEINHARDI, HOME OFFICE, 1551 N. CRAWFORD AVE., CHICAGO.
